Genforum: Durbin Family forum - Michael K. Mulford December 15, 2001 message 834

Father of "Samuel 1698 was Thomas Durbin, b. abt. 1673, St. Thomas Parish, Bristol, England." In a message 836, December 15, 2001 Michael suggests that Thomas son of Samuel had Genforum: Durbin Family forum - Dolores Miltenberger message 888 / Nicholas Durbin died in Jefferson County Ohio 1811 and had a daughter Honor Durbin not Elenora Durbin. Honor Durbin married William Connell and they had the children listed in the posting this is an answer to, beginning with Sarah Prudence Connell. Honor is of record in Nicholas Durbin's will 1811 Jefferson County Ohio as Honor Connell and she is of record in her husband William Connell's will as "Oner" Connell a phonetical spelling. The Connell's moved to what became Ripley County Indiana from Fayette/Westmoreland County Pennsylvania. This is a wee bit of information that we have about William and Honor. Nicholas' father was Samuel Durbin who married Ann Logsdon. Sarah Prudence Connell married first George Livingston [now Ripley Co IN] and after his death she married her widowed brother -in-law Wilford Allen.

The will of Ann Durbin is recorded in Frederick County Will Book A-1 page 330 dated July 8, 1770 and probated Oct 5, 1770. She makes provisions for 13 children: sons William, Samuel, Thomas, John, Nicholas, Christopher, Edward , and Benjamin Durbin; and daughters: Ann Stevenson, Margaret Brown, Mary Logsdon, and Honor Durbin. Samuel's will witnessed by Thomas Logsdon, and Ann's by John and William Logsdon, all brothers of Ann Logsdon Durbin.

The Logsdon and Durbin families have figured in the early settlement of what is now Christian County, Illinois seem to have stemmed from Edward Logsdon and Christopher Durbin who as we gather from Honorable Benjamin Webb's "Centennial of Catholicity in Kentucky" published in 1844 by Charles A. Rogers, resided in 1827 twenty-one miles from Lexington, Fayette County, Kentucky. Honorable Webb mentions a minor Catholic settlement in Madison County, Kentucky about sixteen miles above Boonesboro. He names six families forming this settlement as follows: Christopher Durbin with six sons and six daughters, most of whom were fully grown by 1800; Edward Logsdon; Joshua Brown; Elijah Logsdon with six sons and seven daughters: Clement Howard; and a Mr. Spinks.

William Logsdon, Sr., The Immigrant, and Honor Oflynn Family

By William Jesse (Jeppy) Durbin

William Logsdon, Sr. was born 1663 in England and died prior to Sunday March 3. 1742 in Maryland, married in 1701-02 to Honor Oflynn, born 1683-84 in Ireland, a beautiful Irish girl, a captive from the coast of Ireland. She might have been from Kerry City, Ireland as in that time a bunch of O'Flynn's lived there.

They were parents of seven children:

*1. Ann Logsdon, born 1703 in Baltimore County, Maryland died 1770 in Maryland, married Friday July 4, 1723 at Saint Paul's Church, Baltimore to Samuel Durbin. Their children were Sarah, William, Samuel, Ann, Thomas, John, Margaret, Nicholas, Mary, Honor, *Christopher, Edward, and Benjamin Durbin. We descend from Ann and Samuel Durbin, through the Durbin line from John their fourth son and Christopher their sixth son. Their families are charted under Samuel Durbin.

II. William Logsdon born 1705 married Ann Davis.

*III. Edward Logsdon born 1707 married Sarah, family name not known.

*IV. Thomas Logsdon born 1710, died 1797-98 married Mary, family name not known. Their family follows this family.

V. Honor Logsdon born 1712 married Wednesday Sept. 13, 1730 Richard Fowler.

VI. John Logsdon born 1715 married Oct. 9, 1735 Margaret Wooley.

VII. Prudence Logsdon married James Kelly.

One source says that William Logsdon, The Immigrant was transported to Maryland in 1673. If other source is correct he would have only been ten years old.

NOTES:

601.0 Ann Logsdon p1 from Md. Fam. of Logsdon.

- one reference suggests 7/4/1723 marriage to Samuel performed @ ~~St. Thomas, another suggests same date~~ ~~but~~ St. Pauls Church of Baltimore.

- Another source suggests Ann + Samuel had 3 more children who died prior to 1770.
  A. Edward
  B. Benjamin 3/30/1748 to 11/20/1815 + buried Catholic cemt. in Westminister. Md.
  C. Honor.

The girls in the family of William and Honor Logsdon were three in number:

1. ANN LOGSDON married at St. Paul's Church, Baltimore, July 4th, 1723 SAMUEL DURBIN. Her will dated 7/8/1770 in Frederick County, Maryland was witnesses by her brothers John Logsdon and William Logsdon. The will of Samuel Durbin was dated 9/19/1752 and witnessed by Thomas Logsdon, brother of Ann. (Frederick County WB 28, pg. 400) Her will notes following children:

    A. Sarah Durbin b. 9/19/1724 m. McKinzie
    B. William Durbin b. 1/4/1726
    C. Samuel Durbin b. 1/29/1727
    D. Ann Durbin married Stevenson
    E. Thomas Durbin born 7/13/1732
    F. John Durbin
    G. Margaret Durbin b. 7/11/1736 married ______ Brown.
    H. Nickolas Durbin
    I. Mary Durbin married Ralph Logsdon (John - 2 ; William - 1)
    J. Christopher Durbin b. 7/13/1741

    One Durbin descendant also lists three more children who might possibly have died prior to 1770.

    K. Edward Durbin
    L. Benjamin Durbin (3/30/1748 - 11/20/1815) buried Catholic Cemetery at Westminister, Maryland.
    M. Honor Durbin

    For a more detailed account of this family, see the Durbin chapter appended.

2. HONOR LOGSDON married September 13th, 1730 at St. Paul's Church at Baltimore, Richard Fowler. We have no further record of this family, although in 1802 in Kentucky, Edward Logsdon was witness to the will of Mathew Fowler. This may be pure coincidence.

3. PRUDENCE LOGSDON married September 2nd., 1735 at St. Paul's Church in Baltimore to JAMES KELLY. We have already listed the children of the union, who were all baptized at St. Thomas's Church at Owings Mills.

We will now turn our attention to the male line steaming from William and Honor.

4. JOHN LOGSDON (1716 - 1797) married October 9th, 1735 St. Paul's Church, Baltimore, MARGARET WOOLEY. This line is the best documented of any of the Logsdon family, due to the Chancery Suit over the disposition of his homestead FANNEYS MEADOW, now part of the town of Westminister, Maryland. His birth is derived from a deposition recorded in the Maryland Archives Vol. 38, pg. 559. Date 6/28/1752; Deposition of JOHE LOGSDON AGED ABOUT 36 years .... swears that 16 or 17 years ago, he lived in the neighborhood of CONEWAGO and had lived there some years before .... that he had been employed to survey a tract of land for Dudley Diggs, etc. etc." This testimony is quoted as indicating that in 1736, John Logsdon lived in the neighborhood of Conewago (BROTHERLY LOVE) and had lived there for some years prior to that date. This was the tract that was conveyed by the three brothers in 1742. The deposition also shows that John Logsdon was a surveyor. We feel that his wife, MARGARET WOOLEY, was the daughter of JOHN WOOLEY for who John acted as Administrator upon his death and who, with John Jones, submitted the estate accounts as shown Leiber 24, pg. 187. This same JOHN WOOLEY also sold to Thomas Logsdon, brother of John, a tract called "WOOLEYS RANGE". It is likely that the calling of surveyor stood John Logsdon in good stead, as we have a great many records of his land transactions: -

Fred,

I think I found the problem. Edward Logsdon II is married to Polly, daughter of Edward Brown. Edward II is the son of Edward I, son of William Logsdon and Honor O'Flynn. I could see there was too much different in ages for Edward I to be the father of Lucy.

"IV. Edward I, son of William Logsdon and Honor O'Flynn, was married to a Sarah, thought to be the daughter of Dugal McQueen, date unknown. Edward and Sarah lived in Baltimore and Frederick Counties. Maryland, and Edward witnessed the will of Dugal McQueen in 1793.

Edward Logsdon II was married to Polly, daughter of Edward Brown. The Browns were on the tax list in Washington County, Pennsylvania in 1780. Three of the sons of Edward Brown settled in Kentucky after the Revolutionary War. They were: John, Caleb, and Joshua. When the Logsdons moved to Hardin County, the Browns moved there also.

Edward Logsdon II died in Madison County, and a sale to dispose of his property was held on January 12, 1837.

Mrs. Sally Prior of Bellevue, Washington, has supplied the names of the children of Edward Logsdon and Polly Brown:"

It goes on to list the children:

1. Elizabeth, Elizabeth, born c1772, died before 1829, was married to Joseph, son of Christopher Durbin, Sr. in Madison County.
2. Joseph, born c1773, died c1848, was married to Sarah, daughter of John Simons, Sr. in Mercer County, 1795. (James Simon believes the Joseph Logsdon who married Sarah Simons in Mercer County was the son of Elisha Logsdon)
3. John, born c1775, died c1834, was married to Susannah S. Durbin b. c1880, daughter of Edward Durbin, May 1, 1798.
4. William, born c1776, died c1832, was married to Elizabeth Picklesimon, in Madison County, May 1807.
5. Sarah, born c1779, died c1850, was married to Arnold White, in Madison County, October 6, 1797.

8. Lucy, born c1786, was married to Phillip S., son of Christopher Durbin elder, in Madison County, Aug 17 1800.
9. Mary, born c1790, died between 1830 and 1840, was married to Randolph Hazelwood in Madison County, June 11, 1803.

ok NOT m. TO Clement ~~Howard 03/03~~

I wonder if the following is getting mixed up with the former.

Elisha Durbin, b. c1800 (son of Christopher Durbin, Jr.) was married in the year 1821 in Hardin Co., KY to Mary Logsdon, daughter of James B. Logsdon of Edward and Polly (Brown) Logsdon.

OR Richard Durbin (son of Chrstopher Durbin, Jr.) married Lucy Logsdon

Edward Logsdon and his brothers, Joseph and Thomas, are on the list of taxpayers for Madison Co., KY for the years 1788, 1789, but not for 1790. Then, again in 1791 Edward is listed, plus John, Joseph, and Thomas Jr., Sr., and "old." Descendants of Clement HOWARD Jr.

FIRST GENERATION

1. Clement HOWARD Jr.[1,2] was born about 1750 in St. Mary's Co., MD. He died unknown in Madison Co., KY. He was Catholic. In the Maryland State Archives, " Enlisted by Ensign Nathan Williams. Passed by Joseph Smith, July 25, 1776 ... Clement Howard" see Vol. 18, p. 51. Clement Howard signed the Oath of Allegiance in Maryland in 1778.

During the period 1784-1808, small Catholic settlements and isolated Catholic families were to be found throughout present day Madison County, KY, along the principal streams flowing into the Kentucky River. There was an early Catholic settlement of about 6 pioneer Catholic families along Muddy Creek constituting the first Catholic settlement of a considerable size in the present Diocese of Covington. From Boonesboro Fort, the Boone trace followed up Otter Creek, "at half a mile from the mouth, crossed to the E. side; crossed again to the W. side, when 3-1/4 miles from the fort; struck the mouth of the East fork of Otter, at 4-5/8 miles distance from the fort; thence followed up Otter Creek, diverging westward toward Richmond." This settlement was known as St. Christopher Mission.

The beginning of this early Catholic pioneer settlement in Madison County may date from as early as 1779 or 1780. The settlement consisted of the Christopher Durbin family, of 6 sons and 6 daughters; the Elisha Logsdon family, with 6 sons and 7 daughters; and the families of Joshua Brown, Clement Howard (Jr.), Edward Logsdon (brother of Elisha), and a Spink family. Another early pioneer Catholic family in Madison County was the Wagers family. From this early settlement in the vicinity of Otter and Muddy Creeks, future generations moved over into present Estill Co. along Station Camp Creek, and later into Lee Co. along Contrary Creek.

Running off the Kentucky River a few miles east of Boonsborough is "Howard's Upper Creek." There are also references made to "Howard's Lower Creek," but I have yet to find land transactions involving a Howard in early Madison Co.

He is on the lists of Madison Co., KY taxpayers for 1791, 1792, 1794, 1795, 1796, 1797, 1799. His name is not on the 1787-1790 or 1793 lists.

TERRILL NOTES.

Robert Terrill, of the Will, was the son of Timothy Terrill and his wife, Elizabeth Foster. He was born in New Kent Co., Va., and baptized on the 25th of December, 1697 in St. Peter's Parish Church in which his father was a vestryman. See St. Peter's parish Register, p. 38. There is, also, on same page, record of a son Joseph born to Timothy and Elizabeth Terrill.

Robert Terrill married first, Mary Foster, daughter of John Foster whose wife, it is supposed, was Ann Moore, daughter of Captain Augustine Moore, of Elizabeth City Co., Va.

When the writer of this sketch was apprised of the existence of Robert Terrill's Will by an elderly correspondent, who for a term of years—almost forty—had been a faithful delver in the original records, he remarked in his letter: "Ann Terrill married her cousin." This statement seemed significant; and together with the names of Ann Terrill Moore's sons (distinctive of the Moore family of Chelsea) as given in her father's Will, and indicates a clue to Ann Foster's family setting. [The name Augustine frequently appeared in the family of Moore, of "Chelsea," of King William Co., and in that of Elizabeth

City and York, but there was certainly no relationship, in Virginia at least, between the two families.—Editor.]

This deduction is given in the spirit of investigation, in the hope that it may meet the eye of a reader personally interested and who may be in possession of documentary evidence and, through it, be able to authenticate this tracing.

There was such a tendency in early times toward consanguineous marriage that the same patronymic in close generations implies relationship; consequently, it is supposed that Robert Terrill's wife was his own cousin; his mother, likewise, being a Foster.

There are indications, too, that John and Elizabeth Foster were brother and sister to Joseph Foster (a vestryman in St. Peter's parish Church) and that they were born after 1671, the date of the Will of William Bassett, in which mention is made of "Nephew Joseph Foster and his two sisters, Ann and Mary Foster," each under age at date of Will.

12812

I have been so impressed with the frequency with which the name "Mary Foster" meets the eye on records of her descendants that my curiosity is keen regarding this elect lady of so many namesakes. I find the name on page 54—second part of Green's St. Mark's Parish under the head of the Will of Richard Sims—April 16—1809: "Wife Mary; Children, Robert Terrill Sims; Richard Michlin; Edmond; Joseph T.; Henry; Sallie Butler, Avel Collons, Nancy Tucker; and Mary Foster Sims." The line is obviously that of the offspring of Robert Terrill, Jr., son of the Testator mentioned above.

Edmund

Of the posterity of Robert Terrill and wife Mary Foster, my investigations have been mainly in the line of their son Edmund Terrill. From an old Bible, now in possession of a descendant of the late Mr. Edward G. Cornelius, of Indianapolis, Indiana, I have copied the following table: "Edmund Terrill b. March 21st. 1740; Peggy Willis b, February 25th., 1741. Married, November 26th., 1760.

Issue:—Elizabeth Plunkett Terrill; born April 4th. 1762; Mary Foster Terrill b. June 12th., 1766; John Terrill b, Aug. 13th. 1768; Edmund b, Feb. 9th., 1770; Sarah Terrill b, January 4th. 1772; Jane, b. April 4th., 1774; Robert, b. April 3rd. 1777; James b, June 22nd., 1779; Nancy b, June 22nd 1781; Frances & Lucy (twins) b, Aug. 6th. 1783.

As there has been some speculation as to the parentage of Mrs. Peggy Willis Terrill and a jump-at conclusion accepted by certain of her descendants. I take this opportunity of proving its fallacy. The tradition alluded to has been given a wide circulation and is to the effect that Peggy Willis, wife of Edmund Terrill, was the daughter of Col. Henry Willis, founder of Fredericksburg. In such statements there is no argument so strong as precise dates for the knocking down of a tradition. Col. Henry Willis died on September 14th, 1740, O. S., City and York, but there was certainly no relationship in "England" [illegible] between the two families.—Editor.]

This deduction is given in the spirit of investigation, in the hope that it may catch the eye of a reader personally interested and who may be in possession of documentary evidence such as might be able to authenticate the theory.

There was such a tendency in early times toward consanguineous marriages that the same preference in those generations implies no illegitimacy; consequently, it is supposed that Robert Terrell's wife was his own cousin; his mother, therefore, being a Foster.

There are indications that Wm. John and Elizabeth Terrell were brother and sister of Joseph Foster (in reference to St. Peter's parish Church), and that they were born after 1700, the date of the Will of William Rowsey, in which mention is made of "to [illegible] Joseph Foster and his two sisters, Ann and Mary Foster," each made [illegible] in day of 1702.

I have been so impressed with the frequency with which the name "Mary Foster" crops out on records of the descendants that my curiosity is keen regarding this early lady of so many descendants. I find the name in [illegible] of Orange's St. Mark's Parish under the record of the Will of [illegible] Sons—April 17, [illegible] "wife Mary; Children: Robert, Terrell Rose, Richard Mosby, Thomas, Joseph T., Henry, Sallie Mosby, Ann Cotton, Nancy, Phebe and Mary Foster Terrell." The date is obviously that of the [illegible] of Robert Terrell, Jr., one of the families mentioned above.

Of the posterity of Richmond Terrell and wife Mary Foster, few [illegible] have been made in the line of their son Edmund Terrell. From an old Bible, now in possession of a descendant of the late Mr. Edward G. Cornell, of Indianapolis, Indiana, I have copied the following table: "Edmund Terrell b. March 1st, 1740; Fanny Wells b. February 13th, 1748. Married November 26th, 1760.

Issue—Children: Phebe Terrell born April 4th, 1762; [illegible] Fanny Terrell b. June 24th, 1766; John Terrell b. Aug. 9th, 1768; Edmund b. Feb. 8th, 1770; Sarah Terrell b. January 4th, 1772; John b. April 4th, 1773; Robert b. April 25th, 1775; James b. June [illegible] 1777; Nancy b. June 22nd, 1779, Virginia & Lucy (twins) b. Aug. [illegible] 1781."

As there has been some speculation as to the parentage of Mrs. Fanny Wells Terrell and a [illegible] conclusion reached by certain of her descendants, I take this opportunity of proving [illegible]. The tradition alluded to has been given a wide circulation and is to the effect that Fanny Wells, wife of Edmund Terrell, was the daughter of Col. Henry Wells, founder of [illegible]. In such statements there is no argument so strong as precise dates, for the [illegible] of a tradition. Col. Henry Wells died on September 14th, 1780, O. S.

* and Peggy Willis was born February 25th, 1741, O. S., making her birth just seventeen months after Col. Henry Willis's death.

In Orange County, Va., there is a Will on file of one John Willis dated 1762; in which mention is made of Wife, Elizabeth; Executors, son William Willis and Edmund Terrill. To the latter he left two slaves. Following, is mention of "Walter Shropshire & the others" (of this, later), then the names of nine children all under age. John, Benjamin, Joshua, Reuben, James, Frances, Moses, Lewis and Mary. ✓

To those familiar with a custom of early times (which entitled the husband to be the recipient of his wife's patromony, as in the present instance and where the name of the wife is not mentioned in her father's Will, but her husband is), there is no question as to the existence of such daughter. But I have been told that this circumstance with certain descendants has ruled Peggy out as a daughter. I recall a case in the enlightened age of the "Seventies" of a highly intellectual clergyman in a western city who, apparently, was so used to the ancient custom that when it transpired that the expected legacy through his father-in-law's Will was left to his wife instead, he was greatly agitated.

In the figuring out of a genealogical problem baptismal names, especially grouped, have much to do in determining the facts in the case.

The reader who is interested will note that Peggy Terrill's eldest daughter is recorded in the family Bible as "Elizabeth Plunkett," which would signify that she had given her mother's full name to her first-born. Thus we infer that John Willis married Elizabeth Plunkett.

Returning to the Will and its opening clause, "Walter Shropshire & Others," who were left a trifling amount: The conclusion as to the place in the family of those mentioned is confusing, and can only be explained on the conjecture that the Shropshires were step-children of John Willis who perhaps married Elizabeth as the widow Shropshire. There is a deed of record dated 1750 in Orange County showing that John Willis and Walter Shropshire are joint guardians of John and Ann Shropshire, children of the late John Shropshire, which encourages the theory advanced.

There is a Will extant in Orange County dated 1760, of Mrs. Sarah Turberville, widow of Edward Turberville, which contains mention of Sons John Willis and William Willis; showing that her first husband was a Willis. There was no Turberville issue, but there were several children, evidently by intermediate husbands two in number.

In the beginning of my Willis quest, I corresponded with the late Col. Thomas M. Green, of Kentucky, who was a recognized expert in the genealogy of the Willis family. It was his opinion that Peggy Willis Terrill descended from William Willis of Craney Creek, Gloucester County. Middlesex county records show that William Willis and Bridget Robinson were married the 23rd of June, 1685, and William Willis, son of William and Bridget Willis, was baptized on the Original documents bearing Towles' signature in a bold, clerkly hand show that he, as did others, wrote his given name Stokeley, Stokley, Stokely, Stokly, Stockley and Stockly. His descendants usually spell and always pronounce it Stokeley. On October 21, 1708, he married, in Middlesex, Ann (born August 14, 1693) daughter of Claude Vallott, also known as Claude Champagne, who, on October 6, 1684, deposed that he was 35 years old. Vallott's wife was Ann (nee Jenkinson), who married, second, Angell Jacobus, third, Philip Calvert. Ann Jenkinson's sister, Mary "of Cumberland, England", married John Nash and her mother, Dorothy, married, second, Christopher Fisher "of Ireland".

II

Towles, who was probably born in Accomac about 1690, lived north of Jamaica in Middlesex county until 1737. Among his near neighbors were Samuel Batchelder, Sr., whose wife Katherine was a daughter of Claude Vallott, Edward Clark, who married Ann, daughter of David Allison, and Joseph Gower, whose wife Mary was also Allison's daughter. The first wife of Angell Jacobus was Elizabeth, daughter of Henry and Joan Clark. Ann Clark, sister of Elizabeth, married Francis Gower. In 1737 Towles moved to a plantation on the east side of Robinson river, at the foot of Thoroughfare mountain, then in Orange, afterwards in Culpeper, now in Madison. This place adjoined one owned by William Clark, who settled in Orange about 1735, perhaps earlier. While, as will appear, direct evidence is lacking, it is believed to be certain that William was of the family of Clarks long before allied to Towles in Middlesex, a connection treasured in family tradition and continued through two hundred and fifty years.

Towles' children (except Oliver and Henry—first of the name—) went with him to Orange, or soon joined him. His wife Ann was alive there in 1742. On February 28, 1748, he made settlement at Orange of the estate of Thomas Wharton, whose widow, Jane, he had married. Jane was a daughter of John Sparks, whose widow Mary married, second, Spencer Bobo. Jane's brothers were: Zachary (whose widow Sarah married Anthony Foster), Thomas (who married Towles' daughter Mary—first of that name—) and William Sparks; and the wife of Jasper Haynes was her sister. By her first husband, Thomas Wharton, she had two children, Sarah and John, of whom hereafter.

Towles' will, of record at Culpeper, made January 15, proved December 15, 1757, named Spencer Bobo and testator's wife Jane executors, gave certain land to his son Joseph and to Isaac Medley, personal property to sons John and Joseph, wife Jane and the two minor children, Mary and Henry, the residue of the estate to be "divided amongst all my children, young and old". The will shows that Towles was growing cotton in the Piedmont and importing goods from Liverpool. He signed his name "Stokley". From this will, wills of members of his family, other public and family records and the decree in chancery at Madison in Clark's Adm. v. Towles' Executors, above referred to, it appears that he had the following children: I Oliver, II John, born April 5, 1712, III Henry (first), IV Elizabeth, born December 7, 1716, V Ann, born April 23, 1719, VI Catherine, born July 5, 1721, VII Mary (first), born November 1, 1723, VIII Jane, born February 20, 1726, IX Joseph, born February 23, 1728, X Frances, born May 8, 1730, XI Stokeley, XII Judith, born April 13, 1735, XIII Lucy, XIV Mary (second), born April 12, 1749, XV Henry (second), born March 15, 1756.

I Oliver, son of Stokeley and Ann, lived in Caroline where he was lieutenant of a troop of horse in 1742. July 12, 1745, "Richard Taliaferro and Oliver Towles, gents, trustees of Port Royal", filed the plat of that town. October 2, 1751, Stokeley Towles "of Culpeper", made a deed of gift of the old plantation in Middlesex to Oliver. March 9, 1758, his nephew Oliver, called "Oliver Jr.", prior to 1770, entered into articles with Obediah Merriott (to study law?) and Oliver, Sr., was surety. The remaining records of Caroline show that the latter resided there until May, 1770, when he died in Spotsylvania county. No award to any child or representative of Oliver, Sr., was made in Clark v. Towles, and nothing found suggests that he left issue. The "Mary Gillison, now Towles" witness to the will of John Roy, of Caroline, on October 10, 1734, was probably his wife.

II John, son of Stokeley and Ann, married Margaret, daughter of James and Margaret (Vivion) Daniel, October 9, 1735. Issue: Oliver, born September 1, 1736, Ann, born January 19, 1739. Soon after his father's death John sold his plantation in Culpeper to Valentine Sevier, of Augusta, and moved to Fauquier, where he was alive in 1765.

Oliver, son of John, eminent lawyer and a lieutenant colonel in the Revolution, married Mary, daughter of Larkin Chew and widow of John Smith. Issue: Oliver, Henry Beverley, Ann and Mary, wife of Archibald Dick. See his Spotsylvania deed of December 7, 1789. In the Towles genealogy it is said that he had a daughter Frances who married Robert Stevenson of Lewisburg, now West Virginia.

In the decree in Clark v. Towles "the representatives of Oliver Towles, deceased", were awarded one-half of John's share in the estate of Henry, youngest son of Stokeley, the other half to the heirs of his sister Ann. Ann married John, son of Robert Terrill, for whose will see Va. Mag., Vol. 31, pp. 175 et seq. John Terrill's will, dated January 18, 1803, named children Oliver, Edmund, Robert and Original documents bearing Towles' signature in a bold, clerkly hand show that he, as did others, wrote his given name Stokeley, Stokely, Stokes, Stoakley, Stockley and Stookley. His descendants usually spell and always pronounce it Stokeley. On October 21, 1708, he married, in Middlesex, Ann (born August 14, 1691) daughter of Claude Vallott also known as Claude Champaigne, who on October 4, 1694, deposed that he was 30 years old. Vallott's wife was Ann (née Jenkinson), who married, second, Robert [illegible], third, Philip Calvert. Ann Jenkinson's sister, Mary "of Cumberland, England", married John Nash and her mother, Dorothy, married, second, Christopher Kilbee "of Ireland".

Towles, who was probably born in Accomac about 1682, lived north of Jamaica in Middlesex county until 1737. Among his near neighbors were Samuel Batchelder, Sr., whose wife Katherine was a daughter of Claude Vallott, Richard Curtis, who married Mary, daughter of David Allison, and Joseph Gower, whose wife Mary was also Allison's daughter. The first wife of Angell Jacobus was Elizabeth, daughter of Henry and Joan Clark. Ann Clark, sister of Elizabeth, married Francis Gower. In 1737 Towles moved to a plantation on the east side of Robinson river, at the foot of Thoroughfare mountain, then in Orange, afterwards in Culpeper, now in Madison. This place adjoined one owned by William Clark, who settled in Orange about 1735, perhaps earlier. While, as will appear, direct evidence is lacking, it is believed to be certain that William was of the family of Clarks long before allied to Towles in Middlesex, a connection indicated by family tradition and continued through two-hundred and fifty years.

Towles' children (except Oliver and Henry—first of the name—) went with him to Orange, or soon joined him. His wife Ann was alive there in 1742. On February 25, 1745, he made settlement at Orange of the estate of Thomas Wharton, whose widow, Jane, he had married. Jane was a daughter of John Sparks, whose widow Mary married, second, Spencer Bobo. Jane's brothers were: Zachary (whose widow Sarah married Anthony Foster), Thomas (who married Towles' daughter Mary—first of that name—) and William Sparks; and the wife of Jasper Stevens was her sister. By her first husband, Thomas Wharton, she had two children, Sarah and John, of whom hereafter.

Towles' will, of record at Culpeper, made January 16, proved December 18, 1765, named Spencer Bobo and [illegible] executors with Jane [illegible], gave certain land to his son Joseph and to James Stoller, divided property to sons John and Joseph with Zach and the two minor children, Mary and Henry, the residue of the estate to be divided amongst all his children, young and old. The will shows that Towles was growing cotton in the Piedmont and importing goods from Liverpool. He signed his name "Stokeley". From this will, wills of members of his family, other public and family records and the decree in Chancery at Staunton in Clark's Adm. v. Towles' Executors, above referred to, it appears that he had the following children: I Oliver, II John, born April 4, 1713, III Henry (first), IV Elizabeth, born December 2, 1714, V Ann, born March 27, 1719, VI Catherine, born July 6, 1721, VII Mary (first), born November 1, 1723, VIII Jane, born February 20, 1725, IX Joseph, born February 13, 1728, X Frances, born May 4, 1729, XI Stokeley, XII Judith, born April 12, 1733, XIII Lucy, XIV Mary (second), born April 15, 1740, XV Henry (second), born March 15, 1744.

I Oliver, son of Stokeley and Ann, lived in Caroline where he was lieutenant of a troop of horse in 1743. July 12, 1745, Richard Tolliver and Oliver Towles, gents., trustees of Port Royal, [illegible] the year of this town. October 3, 1751, Stokeley Towles "of Culpeper", made a deed of gift of the old plantation in Middlesex to Oliver. March 9, 1756, his younger Oliver, called "Oliver Jr.", prior to 1750, entered into articles with [illegible] [illegible] and Oliver, Sr., was surety. The remaining records of Caroline show that the latter resided there until May, 1770, when he died in Lunenburg county. No record of any child or representative of Oliver, Sr., was made in Clark v. Towles, and nothing found suggests that he left issue. The "Mary Gibson, now Towles" witness to the will of John Hay of Caroline on October 22, 1771, was probably his wife.

II John, son of Stokeley and Ann, married Margaret, daughter of Henry and Margaret (Vivion) Jacobs, October 2, 1732. Issue: Oliver, born September 5, 1735, Ann, born January 10, 1739. Soon after his father's death John sold his plantation in Culpeper to Valentine [illegible], of Augusta, and moved to Fauquier, where he was alive in 1785.

Oliver, son of John, entered [illegible] and a lieutenant colonel in the Revolution, married Mary, daughter of Larkin Chew and widow of John Smith. Issue: Oliver, Henry, Dorothy, Ann and Mary, wife of Archibald Dick. See his Revolutionary data of December 7, 1832. In the Towles genealogy it is said that he had a daughter Frances who married Robert Stevenson of Lewisburg, now West Virginia.

In the decree in Clark v. Towles "the representatives of Oliver Towles, deceased" were awarded one-half of John's share in the estate of Henry, youngest son of Stokeley, the other half to the heirs of his sister [illegible]

Elizabeth (born July 2, 1763), wife of Nathaniel Welch (born January 17, 1755), and grandsons John Welch, John, son of Oliver, John, son of Edmund, and Uriel, son of Robert Terrill.

✓Robert, son of John and Ann (Towles) Terrill, married Ann, daughter of Uriel Mallory, Sr., and had Uriel and Ellen, who married Robert Lovell.

✓Nathaniel Welch's will, dated October 24, 1814, named children John, Oliver, Nathaniel and Malinda, wife of Uriel Mallory, Jr. A partial list of the descendants of Nathaniel Welch, prepared from data furnished by Dr. Samuel W. Welch, late chief of the public health service of Alabama, is in possession of Senator Park Trammell, of Florida.

✓The decree in Clark v. Towles and the will of his father show that Edmund, son of John and Ann (Towles) Terrill, married and had children but, except John, their names are not disclosed. From the decree it appears that Oliver, son of John and Ann (Towles) Terrill, married Susanna ——— and had Edmund, John, Robert, Mary wife of John C. Gordon, Sarah wife of ——— Conner, Susanna wife of George Morton, Philip, Oliver, and Lucilla wife of James Bradley. To prevent confusion of the Edmund Terrills, an abstract of the will of the brother of John, husband of Ann Towles, is given in note 16.

III Henry (first), son of Stokeley and Ann, never married. In his will (Middlesex) he gave three negroes to father "Stockley", one each to brother John, to William son of sister Ann Hill, to the eldest son of sister Mary Sparks, to James, son of sister Elizabeth Martin, and to brother Joseph. To Samuel Batchelder (his mother's nephew), he left all his cattle, the remaining estate to be divided among his brothers and sisters "except my brother Oliver".

IV Elizabeth, daughter of Stokeley and Ann, married Hugh Marston. Issue: James, born January 12, 1736, John, born July 10, 1738, died October 10, 1739, Oliver, born April 7, 1740, Mary. Mary married James eldest son of William Clark, of whom hereafter. By the decree in Clark v. Towles a share in the estate was given to "the estate of Elizabeth Mastin". All the heirs seem to have been non-residents of Virginia in 1845. The family name was Marston; but it appears of record, also, as Marsden, Marstin, Mastin and, doubtless through clerical error, Martin.

V Ann, daughter of Stokeley and Ann, married Russell, son of William and Frances (Needles) Hill, April 11, 1738. Issue: Frances, born February 25 and died March 12, 1739, William and Henry.

William, son of Russell and Ann Hill, married Frances, daughter of Joseph Wood, of Culpeper, and in his will, dated January 25, 1809, named the following: sons Russell, Armistead and William, daughters Ann, wife of George Roberts, Sally, Lucy Nalle, Betsy Brown, Patsy Colvin, granddaughter Polly Brown and a child (not named) of deceased daughter Fanny. In the will of Frances Hill, dated April 1, 1812, she named grandsons William A. Roberts and Columbus W. son, of John H. and Sarah Brown and granddaughter Frances, daughter of James and Patsy Colvin.

Henry, son of Russell and Ann, the Colonel Henry of the records, married Ann, daughter of Ambrose Powell, and in his will, dated February 12, 1812, named the following: daughters Field and Ann, sons Robert, Henry, A. P. and Thomas. The latter was the father of General Ambrose Powell Hill.

In the decree in Clark's Admr. v. Towles' Exrs., supra, the share of William Hill in the estate of his uncle Henry Towles (second) is divided between Nancy H. Brown, Mildred Curling, Emily wife of Richard Walker, Betsy wife of Daniel Patterson, Fanny, William R., Armistead and Martha Hill, Sarah wife of Christopher Fisher, William, Armistead and Thomas C. Brown, Frances wife of William Slaughter, Mary Ann Allen and Lucy Brown, admrs. of Daniel Brown (deceased), John Brown (deceased), Frances wife of James Cathorn, Eliza wife of Carter Cathorn, Polly R. wife of Henry Field, Martha wife of Alfred Lewis, James A. Colvin in his own right and as admr. of Wm. D. Colvin, and John Colvin.

In said decree the share of Henry, son of Russell and Ann, is divided between his sons Ambrose P., Henry and Thomas, daughters Frances wife of Henry Field, Ann wife of Thornton Stringfellow and the following children of his son Robert: Wm. H. Hill, Nancy P. wife of John Booton, Frances R. wife of Edmund Thompson, Mary B. Hill and Robert C. Hill.

Green's Culpeper notes contain much Hill data.

VI Catherine, daughter of Stokeley and Ann, married Abraham Eddins. "The representatives of Catherine, wife of Abraham Eddins," were awarded a share of the estate of her brother Henry (second) but the papers in the case disclose the names of only two of her children, Joseph and William Eddins, who were served with process and failed to answer.

VII Mary (first of the name), daughter of Stokeley and Ann, married Thomas Sparks, brother of her stepmother. Thomas Sparks' will, dated December 10, 1784, named wife Mary, sons Humphrey, Thomas, John, Henry, daughters Ann, Lucy, Mary, Franky. To James Kilby and Russell Vawter, each, he gave 100 acres and to Jacob Aylor "land I now live on". Wife, Col. Henry Hill and Adam Snyder, Executors. The decree and other papers in Clark v. Towles indicate that (probably in copying) the name of a daughter, Mildred, is omitted from this will, that Sparks' daughter Mary married, first, her cousin Russell Vawter, second, James Smith, that Lucy married James Kilby and Ann married Jacob Aylor. The will of John, son of Thomas Sparks, dated January 9, 1803, and of his wife Phoebe, dated January 10, 1814, name children Nancy Wilhoit, Fannie Hume, Henry, Thomas, Robert, Mary, Susanna and Betsy Vallott Sparks. From the decree it appears that Fannie's husband was William Hume, that Mary married Jasper Sparks and that Betsy married Merry Aylor. The children of James and Lucy Kilby are named in the decree as Thomas, Joseph, LeRoy, John, Henry and Fannie, wife of John Creel.

VIII Jane, daughter of Stokeley and Ann, married Isaac Medley. In the decree in Clark v. Towles, supra, a share of the estate of Henry Towles, the second, was awarded to "the representatives, when discovered, of Jane Medley, a half sister of the testator". Her descendants have not been traced.

IX Joseph, son of Stokeley and Ann, married Sarah, sister of John and Robert Terrill, husbands, respectively, of his niece Ann and sister Judith. Issue, named in his will dated January 27, 1770, and in that of his wife's father: Henry, William, Joseph, Robert, Mary, Ann, Jane, Frances, Sarah.

Henry, son of Joseph, "Major Harry" of the Revolution (often confused with another Major Harry, grandson of Stokeley's brother Henry), married Elizabeth Wetherall July 27, 1776 and died January 10, 1829. His widow was pensioned. His will was recorded in one of the lost Culpeper records. From the decree in Clark v. Towles it appears that he had a son Joseph; according to a court order of October 17, 1835, his land was divided between his widow and Eleanor W., Mildred B., William, George and John W. Towles. Major Harry's share in the estate of his uncle Henry was awarded to "George Towles in his own right and as administrator of William Towles, Samuel De Camp administrator of Sarah De Camp, Daniel Ward administrator of Ellen Pratt, Thomas C. Brown administrator of John Towles, and the children of Joseph, a deceased son of Major Henry Towles".

It appears from the decree in Clark v. Towles that three of the children of Joseph and Sarah (Terrill) Towles died without issue, namely William, Robert and Frances. The latter married Edmund Willis, January 18, 1787. Her husband's name is incorrectly transcribed as "Edward" on the marriage record at Culpeper.

Of the other children of Joseph and Sarah (Terrill) Towles, Joseph (Captain in the Revolution) married Mary Wetherall February 16, 1786, Mary married Richard Sims, Ann married Adam Snyder, Jane married James Sims December 29, 1790, and Sarah married William Rowe March 31, 1787.

By the decree in Clark v. Towles awards were made to "the representatives" of Joseph Towles and of the wives of William Rowe, Richard Sims and James Sims, sons and daughters, respectively, of "Joseph Towles, half brother of testator". The award of the share of Ann Snyder was to Henry T., Powell and Robert J. Snyder, Lucinda, wife of Daniel A. Yowell, Frances, wife of Henry Quaintance, Jane, wife of Walker W. Yowell and "the children of Sarah Utz, when discovered". Sarah Snyder married Abram Utz, November 1, 1795.

The will of Richard Sims, at Culpeper, made April 6, proved June 19, 1809, named sons Joseph T., Henry, Edmund, Garnett, Robert Terrill and Richard Merlin Sims, daughters Sallie Butler, Avee (Averilla) Collins, Nancy Tucker and Mary Foster. Son Joseph T., son-in-law Amon Butler and wife Mary executors.

X Frances, daughter of Stokeley and Ann, married Richard Vawter, whose will, dated March 1, 1803, named son-in-law Elijah Wilhoit, daughters Margaret Breedlove, Lucy Finks, Tabitha Rouse, Ann Vawter and Alpha Shelton. Frances Vawter's will, dated November 11, 1811, named daughters Alpha Shelton, Ann Vawter and Nancy Wilhoit. From the decree in Clark v. Towles it appears that Richard and Frances had two sons, John and Russell; that the former was living in 1845; that Russell married his cousin, Mary Sparks, and died without issue; that the husbands of Margaret, Alpha, Ann and Tabitha were, respectively, John Breedlove, Robert Chilton, Philemon Vawter and Adam Rouse; and that Lucy, wife of Mark Finks, left nine children: Elbert, William and Paschal Finks, Tabitha, wife of Joel Grayson, Julia, wife of Elliot Wilhoit, Judith Wayman, Ann Broyles, Lucy, wife of Abner Berry, and Polly Wilhoit.

XI Stokeley, son of Stokeley and Ann, married Margery, daughter of Edward Ballinger of Culpeper. Issue, named in deed of gift dated 1792: Henry, married Alphia Tucker March 29, 1792, Mary, married Benjamin Spicer March 20, 1787, and Catherine. From the tax records in the state library at Richmond it appears that this Stokeley died during or about the year 1800 and that his son Henry disposed of his plantation in Culpeper after 1830. No other deed or record relating to the family has been found.

XII Judith, daughter of Stokeley and Ann, married Robert Terrill brother of Sarah, wife of her brother Joseph and of John, husband of her niece Ann. They moved to Lincoln county, Kentucky. From the decree in Clark v. Towles and other records it appears that they had the following children: John, Henry, Robert, Joseph, Edmund, Ann, Clara and Dicie. John's widow died in Madison county, Virginia, leaving a will dated June 24, 1816, naming sons John and Micajah, daughters Milly Brown, Patsy Pratt, Judith Aylor and Lucy wife of Thornton Harrison. The decree shows that Judith's berry), grandson of William of Spotsylvania. Oswald, Jr., Absalom, Jr., and Garland moved to Lincoln county, Kentucky, circa 1815.

Note 16. Will of Edmund Terrill, of Culpeper, made June 1, 1784, proved November 15, 1784, wife living but not named, children Elizabeth, Mary, John, Edmund, Sarah, Jean, Robert, James, Nancy, Fanny, Lucy; John Terrill, Robert Garnett and Wm. Willis, executors.

Note 17. In 1787 the land in Orange known as "Peafield", patented to Edward Southall, was assessed to Patrick Clark who conveyed it, piecemeal, to James, William, John and Reuben Clark. The source of Patrick's title does not appear. In his declaration for a pension he stated that he was born in Caroline Co., Va., August 26, 1756; lived in Orange; served three years as volunteer under Capt. George Waugh; living in Mercer Co., Ky., in 1833. One of his witnesses, a comrade, James Clark, born in Mecklenburg Co., Va., November 18, 1759, according to family Bible then in possession of James' youngest brother, Francis; living in Mercer Co., Ky., in 1833; Dred Bolling a witness for James. Miss Sara W. Mahan, Clerk of the Circuit Court at Danville, Ky., says that James and Francis were sons of Rev. Francis Clark, founder of Methodism in Kentucky, who moved there in 1783 with John Durham of Mecklenburg, settled in Lincoln and died in what is now Boyle, October 24, 1799; Francis, Sr., reputed to have been son of Bolling and grandson of Christopher Clark.

A CORRECTION AND ADDITIONS.*

It is stated in Tyler's Vol. 13, p. 35, that "9. James (Clark) lived near Jefferson City, Mo."

Mrs. Earle P. Chittenden of Webster Groves, Mo., writes: "There was one error in the article on the Clarks—my Father, John Thompson Clark, was the son of James Towles Clark, who did not leave Virginia, but was born and lived in Orange County and later in Stevensburg, Culpeper County. He was married to Elizabeth Thompson Murphy at Culpeper Court House and is buried in an old Murphy family plot in Stevensburg.

John Clark of Clark's Mountain was my great-grandfather on my paternal side. My father, John Thompson Clark, picked chestnuts on that mountain when he was a small boy. He emigrated with his widowed mother, younger brother and sister and slaves, at the age of ten. 55 years later, while completing the military history of Missouri, in Washington, he revisited the Mountain and wrote in his diary: 'From here (Unionville) we went upon Clarke's Mountain from the summit of which I witnessed the most beautiful landscape I have ever seen.' It is located in Orange Co. overlooking the Rapidan valley. He had an intense love for Old Virginia." John Thompson Clark had two children, Elizabeth and Fletcher, who married Sadie Belton, Jefferson City, Mo.

PARENTAGE OF COLONEL FRANCIS TRIPLETT OF FAUQUIER COUNTY, VIRGINIA

By the Reverend Arnold Harris Hord

Colonel Francis Triplett was a distinguished soldier of Virginia in the French and Indian War and in the American Revolution. A biographical sketch of him appeared in Tyler's Quarterly Magazine a few years ago (Vol. XI, page 37). He was believed until recently to have been a son of Francis Triplett of Truro Parish, Fairfax County, Virginia, who mentions in his will (proved in Fairfax County, November 22, 1758) a "son Francis."

TERRELL NOTES

Robert Terrill, of the Will, was the son of Timothy Terrill and his wife Elizabeth Foster. He was born in New Kent Co., Va., and baptized on the 25th of December,1697, in St. Peter's Parish Church in which his father was Vesterman. See St. Peter's Parish Register, P. 38. There is, also, on the same page, record of a son Joseph born to Timothy and Elizabeth Terrill. /

Robert Terrill married first, Mary Foster, daughter of John Foster whose wife is supposed, was Ann Moore, daughter of Captain Augustine Moore, of Elizabeth City Co., Va. When the writer of this sketch was apprised of the existence of Robert Terrill's Will by an elderly correspondent, who for a term of years-almost forty- had been a faithful delver in the original records, he remarked in his letter: "Ann Terrell married her cousin." This statement seemed significant; and together with the names of Ann Terrill Moore's sons(distinctive of the Moore family of Chelsea) as given in her father's will and indicates a clue to Ann Foster's family setting.(The name Augustine frequently appeared in the family of Moore, of"Chelsea," of King William Co., and that of Elizabeth City and York, but there was certainly no relationship, in Virginia at least, between the two families.--Editor.)

This deduction is given in the spirit of investigation, in the hope that it may meet the eye of a reader personally interested and who may be in possession of documentary evidence and, through it, be able to authenticate this tracing.

There was such a tendency in early times toward consanguineous marriage that the same patronymic in close generations implies relationship; consequently, it is supposed that Robert Terrill's wife was his own cousin; his mother, likewise, being a Foster. There are indications, too, that John and Elizabeth Foster were brother and sister to Joseph Foster(a Vesteryman in St. Peter's Parish Church) and that they were born after 1671, the date of the Will of William Bassett, in which mention is made of "Nephew Joseph Foster and his two sisters, Ann and Mary Foster," each under age at date of Will.

I have been so impressed with the frequency with which the name "Mary Foster" meets the eye on Records of her descendants that my curiosity is keen regarding this elect lady of so many namesakes./I find the name on page 54--second part of Green's St. * Mark's Parish under the head of the Will of Richard Sims--April 16,1809: "Wife Mary; Children, Robert Terrill Sims; Richard Michlin; Edmund; Joseph T.; Henry; Sallie Butler; Avel Collons; Nancy Tucker; and Mary Foster Sims." The line is obviously that of the offspring of Robert Terrill Jr., son of the Testator mentioned above.

Of the postrity of Robert Terrill and his wife Mary Foster, my investigations have been mainly in the line of their son Edmund Terrill./From an old Bible, now in the possession of a descendant of the late Mr. G. Cornelius, of Indianapolis, Indiana, I have copied the following table: "Edmund Terrill b. March 21st. 1740; Peggy Willis b. February 25th. 1741. Married, November 26th., 1760./

Issue;-- Elizabeth Plunkett Terrill; born April 4th., 1762; Mary Foster Terrill b. June 12th.,1766; John Terrill b. Aug. 13th.,1768; Edmund Terrill b. Febr. 9th.,1770;/ Sarah Terrill b. January 4th., 1772; Jane Terrill b.April 4th.,1774; Robert, b. Apr. 3rd.,1777; James, b. June 22nd.,1779; Nancy, b. June 22nd.,1781; Frances and Lucy (twins) b. Aug. 6th.,1783./

As there has been some speculation as to the parentage of Mrs. Peggy Willis Terrill and a jump-at conclusion accepted by certain of her descendants, I take this opportunity of proving it's fallacy. The tradition alluded to has been given wide circulation and is to the effect that Peggy Willis, wife of Edmund Terrill, was the daughter of Col. Henry Willis, founder of Fredericksburg. In such statements there is no argument so strong as presise dates for the knocking down of a tradition. Col. Henry Willis died on September 14th.,1740, O.S., and Peggy Willis was born February 25th., 1741, O.S., making her birth just seventeen months after Col. Henry Willis' death.

In Orange County, Va., there is a Will on file of one John Willis dated 1762/ in which mention is made of Wife, Elizabeth; Executors, sons William Willis and Edmund Terrill. To the latter he left two slaves./Following, is mention of "Walter Shropshire and the others",(of this, later), then the names of nine children all under age. John, Benjamin, Joshua, Reuben, James, Frances, Moses, Lewis and Mary.

To those familiar with the custom of early times(which entitled the husband to be the recipient of his wife's patromony, as in the present instance and where the name of his wife is not mentioned in her father's will, but her husband is). there is no question as to the existence of such daughter. But I have been told that this circumstance with certain descendants has ruled Peggy out as a daughter. I recall a case in the enlightened age of the "Seventies" of a highly intellectual clergyman in a western city who, apparently, was so used to the ancient custom that when it transpired that the expected legacy through his father-in-law's Will was left to his wife instead, he was greatly agitated.

In the figuring out of a genealogical problem baptismal names, especially grouped, have much to do in determining the facts in the case.

The reader who is interested will note that Peggy Terrill's eldest daughter is recorded in the family Bible as "Elizabeth Plunkett," which would signify that she had given her mother's full name to her first born. Thus we infer that John Willis married Elizabeth Plunkett.

Returning to the Will and its opening clause, "Walter Shropshire & others," who were left a trifling amount: The conclusion as to the place in the family of those mentioned is confusing, and can only be explained on the conjecture that the Shropshires were step-children of John Willis who perhaps married Elizabeth as the widow Shrop- * shire. There is a deed of record dated 1750 in Orange County showing that John Willis and Walter Shropshire are joint guardians of John and Ann Shropshire, children of the late John Shropshire, which encourages the theory advanced.

WILLIAM TERRELL III. SON OF ROBERT AND MARY(FOSTER)TERRILL.

William was the 5th child named in his father's will. He was left a share and was named as one of the executors. Was named in the 1790 census in Orange Co.,Va. It is thought he was born 1733. It is tradition that he was married twice, 1st to Mary Mallory, 2nd to Ann Daniel. The marriage bond of William Terrell,Sr. and Ann Daniel filed in Orange Co.,Va. was dated 23 May 1780, so she was evidently his 2nd wife. In the same county is the marriage bond of William Terrell,Jr. and Jane Morton, date 28 Jan. 1793. William,Jr. was no doubt a child of the 1st marriage of William,sr. In a family sketch written by Dr. Uriel Terrill, and additional data given by his grandson A. E. Terrill, the children of William,Sr. were not named but said William Terrill,(son of Robert and Mary(Foster)Terrill) was the grandfather of Dr. George Terrill; William H. Terrill; Sarah Terrill, first wife of John W. Yancey; and Mrs. Jane (Terrill) Pilcher.

Records of Col. William H. Terrell state that he was a son of William Terrill,Jr. and his wife Jane Morton. Col. William H. Terrill, b. 21 April,1804 and died age 77. He was a distinguished lawyer and his obituary in the Charleston "Free Press" mentioned him as Col. William Terrill of Bath County, Va.. EDMUND TERRELL

This is the Edmund that would be for most of us of our bramch of the Terrell family, our great-great-great-grandfather.

Edmund Terrell, son of Robert and Mary(Foster) Terrill, according to family tradition was the seventh child of his parents. He was born. 21 March 1740 and died 1784 in Culpeper County, Va. Dear Mr. Donohoe:

I read your letter regarding the Terrills with great interest. Although I cannot answer all of your questions, I think that I can thro~~ugh~~w some light on a few of your problems regarding land location:

1. Robert Terrill's lease from Spotswood executors (150 acres) was directly on the north bank of the Rapidan River and, as near as I can estimate roughly north of what is today known as Clark Mountain (see #4).

2. Robert Terill's plantation, formerly part of John Baylor's patent, was just north of present date Rt. 20, just west of the modern town of Orange.

3. I'm not sure regarding the Bobo/Terrill land location--you will need to chase this title farther forward, for more clues.

4. Regarding the Thomas Sims land and Sims Mill Swamp: the best local talent identifies that region as near present-day Piedmont Farm (corner of modern Rts. 636 and 627 just SE of the town of Rapidan (from Patricia J. Hurst The History and People of Clark Mountain [pvt. prt. 1989] --this interesting volume is available from the author for $28.50 postpaid; her address is Rt. 1, Box 230, Rapidan, VA 22733).

Thus far, information on social history, personal traits, etc. on early county inhabitants is hard to come by; we are gathering it, but slowly. By the way--don't be too hard on old Henry Terrill--an "X" signature may mean illiteracy, but may also indicate an injury or illness which affected his writing hand. In any event--he probably did grow tobacco (most people in this area did, then), and with the Virginia summers, he most likely did have a porch, but maybe a small one! Mint juleps are a 19th century drink--Henry probably settled for hard cider or homemade brandy: most people did then (including the Madisons, who made and sold a good "product"!).

Sincerely,

Ann Miller, Research Historian

First; I am curious to know if there is any interest in these people.

Second; Practically all of my information to date has come from Deeds, Road Orders, Wills, Vital Statistics, and some Vestry books. Is there no literature to show something of the character or personal traits of them?

Third; I have been able to locate the general area of the recorded deeds, but to date have had the devil of a time in pin-pointing the "plantations." Is there any source that will help?

I am particularly curious about the following:

1. Robert Terrill's (06-101) and Thomas Sim's (23 Oct 1734) Leases from Spotswood or his Executors.
2. Robert Terrill's plantation (12-256), part of which he gave to his son John (13-144) in 1761. I think Robert Terrill may have been living on this land at the time of his death in 1786. This must be part of John Baylor's patent of 6,500 acres; one corner is described as on Baylor's Run at the mouth of John Terrill's Spring Branch. This puts it mighty close to your City!
3. Robert Terrill obtained 400 acres (A-041, Culpeper) from Spencer Bobo at "mouth of Stony Run on the North side the Robinson River." Is Stoney Run near State Route 632 where it crosses Robinson River (per USGS "Brightwood")?
4. One more - Road Order dated 29 Nov 1745; refers to Sim's Mill Swamp to Court House Road. Any idea of this area?

In all probability I will be in Orange County within a year or so and can do my own research, but a couple of lines regarding the above would be appreciated, for which I thank you now.

Y'r Obed't Serv't,

TOWLES AND CLARK FAMILIES.

BY WILLIAM B. NEWMAN, Washington, D. C.

STOKELEY TOWLES, SENIOR.

The Towles Genealogy[*] in Virginia Magazine, Vol. 8, pp. 320, et seq., made scant reference to the line of Stokeley, son of Henry and Ann (Stokeley) Towles of Accomac. In a letter to the writer, Mr. W. A. Towles stated: "I shall make no effort to follow Stokeley. His family, except the Hills, Terrills, Garnetts and Col. Oliver who have been traced fairly well, seems to have merged with William Clark's. No sane man would undertake a Clark genealogy."

Not long ago the writer's attention was called to decrees in chancery at Madison, Va., from which and other records it is possible to name the children and many descendants of these men. One, rendered in 1820, in the case of Boughan et al. v. Beckham et al., ascertained the heirs and partitioned the land of Clark's son Ambrose, the other, dated 1845, in the case of Clark's Admr. v. Towles' Executors, set aside the will and distributed the estate of Towles' youngest son, Henry; Henry and Ambrose having died sine prole. The fusion of the families, while remarkable, was far from complete.

Original documents bearing Towles' signature in a bold, clerkly hand show that he, as did others, wrote his given name Stokeley, Stokley, Stokely, Stokly, Stockley and Stockly. His descendants usually spell and always pronounce it Stokeley. On October 21, 1708, he married, in Middlesex, Ann (born August 14, 1693) daughter of Claude Vallott, also known as Claude Champagne, who, on October 6, 1684, deposed that he was 35 years old. Vallott's wife was Ann (nee Jenkinson), who married, second, Angell Jacobus, third, Philip Calvert. Ann Jenkinson's sister, Mary "of Cumberland, England", married John Nash and her mother, Dorothy, married, second, Christopher Fisher "of Ireland".

Towles, who was probably born in Accomac about 1690, lived north of Jamaica in Middlesex county until 1737. Among his near neighbors were Samuel Batchelder, Sr., whose wife Katherine was a daughter of Claude Vallott, Edward Clark, who married Ann, daughter of David Allison, and Joseph Gower, whose wife Mary was also Allison's daughter. The first wife of Angell Jacobus was Elizabeth, daughter of Henry and Joan Clark. Ann Clark, sister of Elizabeth, married Francis Gower. In 1737 Towles moved to a plantation on the east side of Robinson river, at the foot of Thoroughfare mountain, then in Orange, afterwards in Culpeper, now in Madison. This place adjoined one owned by William Clark, who settled in Orange about 1735, perhaps earlier. While, as will appear, direct evidence is lacking, it is believed to be certain that William was of the family of Clarks long before allied to Towles in Middlesex, a connection treasured in family tradition and continued through two-hundred and fifty years.

Towles' children (except Oliver and Henry—first of the name—) went with him to Orange, or soon joined him. His wife Ann was alive there in 1742. On February 28, 1748, he made settlement at Orange of the estate of Thomas Wharton, whose widow, Jane, he had married. Jane was a daughter of John Sparks, whose widow Mary married, second, Spencer Bobo. Jane's brothers were: Zachary (whose widow Sarah married Anthony Foster), Thomas (who married Towles' daughter Mary—first of that name—) and William Sparks; and the wife of Jasper Haynes was her sister. By her first husband, Thomas Wharton, she had two children, Sarah and John, of whom hereafter.

Towles' will, of record at Culpeper, made January 15, proved December 15, 1757, named Spencer Bobo and testator's wife Jane executors, gave certain land to his son Joseph and to Isaac Medley, personal property to sons John and Joseph, wife Jane and the two minor children, Mary and Henry, the residue of the estate to be "divided amongst all my children, young and old". The will shows that Towles was growing cotton in the Piedmont and importing goods from Liverpool. He signed his name "Stokley". From this will, wills of members of his family, other public and family records and the decree in chancery at Madison in Clark's Adm. v. Towles' Executors, above referred to, it appears that he had the following children: I Oliver, II John, born April 5, 1712, III Henry (first), IV Elizabeth, born December 7, 1716, V Ann, born April 23, 1719, VI Catherine, born July 5, 1721, VII Mary (first), born November 1, 1723, VIII Jane, born February 20, 1726, IX Joseph, born February 23, 1728, X Frances, born May 8, 1730, XI Stokeley, XII Judith, born April 13, 1735, XIII Lucy, XIV Mary (second), born April 12, 1749, XV Henry (second), born March 15, 1756.

Genealogy of Virginia Families Vol 3

I Oliver, son of Stokeley and Ann, lived in Caroline where he was lieutenant of a troop of horse in 1742. July 12, 1745, "Richard Taliaferro and Oliver Towles, gents, trustees of Port Royal", filed the plat of that town. October 2, 1751, Stokeley Towles "of Culpeper", made a deed of gift of the old plantation in Middlesex to Oliver. March 9, 1758, his nephew Oliver, called "Oliver Jr.", prior to 1770, entered into articles with Obediah Merriott (to study law?) and Oliver, Sr., was surety. The remaining records of Caroline show that the latter resided there until May, 1770, when he died in Spotsylvania county. No award to any child or representative of Oliver, Sr., was made in Clark v. Towles, and nothing found suggests that he left issue. The "Mary Gillison, now Towles" witness to the will of John Roy, of Caroline, on October 10, 1734, was probably his wife.

II John, son of Stokeley and Ann, married Margaret, daughter of James and Margaret (Vivion) Daniel, October 9, 1735. Issue: Oliver, born September 1, 1736, Ann, born January 19, 1739. Soon after his father's death John sold his plantation in Culpeper to Valentine Sevier, of Augusta, and moved to Fauquier, where he was alive in 1765.

Oliver, son of John, eminent lawyer and a lieutenant colonel in the Revolution, married Mary, daughter of Larkin Chew and widow of John Smith. Issue: Oliver, Henry Beverley, Ann and Mary, wife of Archibald Dick. See his Spotsylvania deed of December 7, 1789. In the Towles genealogy it is said that he had a daughter Frances who married Robert Stevenson of Lewisburg, now West Virginia.

In the decree in Clark v. Towles "the representatives of Oliver Towles, deceased", were awarded one-half of John's share in the estate of Henry, youngest son of Stokeley, the other half to the heirs * of his sister Ann. Ann married John, son of Robert Terrill, for whose will see Va. Mag., Vol. 31, pp. 175 et seq. John Terrill's will, dated January 18, 1803, named children Oliver, Edmund, Robert and Ann?

Elizabeth (born July 2, 1763), wife of Nathaniel Welch (born January 17, 1755), and grandsons John Welch, John, son of Oliver, John, son of Edmund, and Uriel, son of Robert Terrill. *

Robert, son of John and Ann (Towles) Terrill, married Ann, daughter of Uriel Mallory, Sr., and had Uriel and Ellen, who married Robert Lovell.

Nathaniel Welch's will, dated October 24, 1814, named children John, Oliver, Nathaniel and Malinda, wife of Uriel Mallory, Jr. A partial list of the descendants of Nathaniel Welch, prepared from data furnished by Dr. Samuel W. Welch, late chief of the public health service of Alabama, is in possession of Senator Park Trammell, of Florida.

The decree in Clark v. Towles and the will of his father show that Edmund, son of John and Ann (Towles) Terrill, married and had children but, except John, their names are not disclosed. From the decree it appears that Oliver, son of John and Ann (Towles) Terrill, married Susanna ——— and had Edmund, John, Robert, Mary wife of John C. Gordon, Sarah wife of ——— Conner, Susanna wife of George Morton, Philip, Oliver, and Lucilla wife of James Bradley. To prevent confusion of the Edmund Terrills, an abstract of the will of the brother of John, husband of Ann Towles, is given in note 16.

III Henry (first), son of Stokeley and Ann, never married. In his will (Middlesex) he gave three negroes to father "Stockley", one each to brother John, to William son of sister Ann Hill, to the eldest son of sister Mary Sparks, to James, son of sister Elizabeth Martin, and to brother Joseph. To Samuel Batchelder (his mother's nephew), he left all his cattle, the remaining estate to be divided among his brothers and sisters "except my brother Oliver".

IV Elizabeth, daughter of Stokeley and Ann, married Hugh Marston. Issue: James, born January 12, 1736, John, born July 10, 1738, died October 10, 1739, Oliver, born April 7, 1740, Mary. Mary married James eldest son of William Clark, of whom hereafter. By the decree in Clark v. Towles a share in the estate was given to "the estate of Elizabeth Mastin". All the heirs seem to have been nonresidents of Virginia in 1845. The family name was Marston; but it appears of record, also, as Marsden, Marstin, Mastin and, doubtless through clerical error, Martin.

? V Ann, daughter of Stokeley and Ann, married Russell, son of William and Frances (Needles) Hill, April 11, 1738. Issue: Frances, born February 25 and died March 12, 1739, William and Henry.

William, son of Russell and Ann Hill, married Frances, daughter of Joseph Wood, of Culpeper, and in his will, dated January 25, 1809, named the following: sons Russell, Armistead and William, Elizabeth (born July 2, 1760), wife of Nathaniel Welch (born January 17, 1755), and grandsons John Welch, John, son of Oliver (John, Jr. of Edmund) and Olive, son of Robert Terrill.

Robert, son of John and Ann (Fleming) Terrill, married Ann, daughter of [illegible] Gentry, Sr., and had Ethel and [illegible] who [illegible] Robert Terrill.

Nathaniel Welch's will, dated October 24, 1814, names children John, Oliver, Nathaniel and Rhoda, wife of [illegible] Mallory, Jr. A partial list of the descendants of Nathaniel Welch, prepared from data furnished by Dr. [illegible] W. Welch, late chief of the public health service of Alabama, is in possession of [illegible] Welch [illegible] of [illegible].

The decree in Clark v. Terrill and the bill in the chancery suit state that Edmund, son of John and Ann (Fleming) Terrill, married and had children but, except John, their names are not disclosed. From the decree it appears that Oliver, son of John and Ann (Fleming) Terrill, married Margaret ——— and had Edmund, John, Robert, Mary wife of John C. Harden, Nancy wife of ——— Cooper, [illegible] wife of George Warren, Philip, Oliver and Amelia wife of James Bradley. To prevent confusion of the Edmund Terrill, an abstract of the will of the brother of John, husband of Ann Fleming, is given in detail.

III Henry, (Harry), son of Timothy and Ann, never married. In his will (Middlesex) he made three negroes to father "Timothy", one each to brother John, to William son of sister Ann Hill, to the eldest son of sister Mary Daniel, to Daniel, son of sister Elizabeth Martin, and to brother Joseph. To Rachel Batchelder [illegible] he left all his cattle, the remaining estate to be divided between brothers and sisters, "except my brother Oliver".

IV Elizabeth, daughter of Timothy and Ann, married [illegible] Martin. Issue: [illegible] born January 13, 1729, [illegible] born July 10, 1731, died October 16, 1739, [illegible] born April 7, 1740 [illegible]. Mary married James [illegible] son of William Clark of whom hereafter. By the decree in Clark v. Terrill a share in the estate was given to "the heirs of Elizabeth Martin". All the heirs seem to have been non-residents of Virginia in 1800. The family name was Martin; but it appears of record, also, as Marten, Martin, Mastin and, doubtless [illegible] name Martin.

V Ann, daughter of Timothy and Ann, married [illegible] Hill, son of William and Frances [illegible] Hill, April 11, 1745. Issue: Frances, born February 20 and died March 16, 1750; William and Thomas.

William son of Russell and Ann Hill, married Frances, daughter of Joseph Wood, of Culpeper, and in his will, dated January 20, 1808, named the following: sons Russell, Archibald and William daughters Ann, wife of George Roberts, Sally, Lucy Nalle, Betsy Brown, Patsy Colvin, granddaughter Polly Brown and a child (not named) of deceased daughter Fanny. In the will of Frances Hill, dated April 1, 1812, she named grandsons William A. Roberts and Columbus W. son, of John H. and Sarah Brown and granddaughter Frances, daughter of James and Patsy Colvin.

Henry, son of Russell and Ann, the Colonel Henry of the records, married Ann, daughter of Ambrose Powell, and in his will, dated February 12, 1812, named the following: daughters Field and Ann, sons Robert, Henry, A. P. and Thomas. The latter was the father of General Ambrose Powell Hill.

In the decree in Clark's Admr. v. Towles' Exrs., supra, the share of William Hill in the estate of his uncle Henry Towles (second) is divided between Nancy H. Brown, Mildred Curling, Emily wife of Richard Walker, Betsy wife of Daniel Patterson, Fanny, William R., Armistead and Martha Hill, Sarah wife of Christopher Fisher, William, Armistead and Thomas C. Brown, Frances wife of William Slaughter, Mary Ann Allen and Lucy Brown, admrs. of Daniel Brown (deceased), John Brown (deceased), Frances wife of James Cathorn, Eliza wife of Carter Cathorn, Polly R. wife of Henry Field, Martha wife of Alfred Lewis, James A. Colvin in his own right and as admr. of Wm. D. Colvin, and John Colvin.

In said decree the share of Henry, son of Russell and Ann, is divided between his sons Ambrose P., Henry and Thomas, daughters Frances wife of Henry Field, Ann wife of Thornton Stringfellow and the following children of his son Robert: Wm. H. Hill, Nancy P. wife of John Booton, Frances R. wife of Edmund Thompson, Mary B. Hill and Robert C. Hill.

Green's Culpeper notes contain much Hill data.

VI Catherine, daughter of Stokeley and Ann, married Abraham Eddins. "The representatives of Catherine, wife of Abraham Eddins," were awarded a share of the estate of her brother Henry (second) but the papers in the case disclose the names of only two of her children, Joseph and William Eddins, who were served with process and failed to answer.

VII Mary (first of the name), daughter of Stokeley and Ann, married Thomas Sparks, brother of her stepmother. Thomas Sparks' will, dated December 10, 1784, named wife Mary, sons Humphrey, Thomas, John, Henry, daughters Ann, Lucy, Mary, Franky. To James Kilby and Russell Vawter, each, he gave 100 acres and to Jacob Aylor "land I now live on". Wife, Col. Henry Hill and Adam Snyder, Executors. The decree and other papers in Clark v. Towles indicate that (probably in copying) the name of a daughter, Mildred, is omitted from this will, that Sparks' daughter Mary married, first, her cousin Russell Vawter, second, James Smith, that Lucy married James Kilby and Ann married Jacob Aylor. The will of John, son of Thomas Sparks, dated January 9, 1803, and of his wife Phoebe, dated January 10, 1814, name children Nancy Wilhoit, Fannie Hume, Henry, Thomas, Robert, Mary, Susanna and Betsy Vallott Sparks. From the decree it appears that Fannie's husband was William Hume, that Mary married Jasper Sparks and that Betsy married Merry Aylor. The children of James and Lucy Kilby are named in the decree as Thomas, Joseph, LeRoy, John, Henry and Fannie, wife of John Creel.

VIII Jane, daughter of Stokeley and Ann, married Isaac Medley. In the decree in Clark v. Towles, supra, a share of the estate of Henry Towles, the second, was awarded to "the representatives, when discovered, of Jane Medley, a half sister of the testator". Her descendants have not been traced.

IX Joseph, son of Stokeley and Ann, married Sarah, sister of John and Robert Terrill, husbands, respectively, of his niece Ann and sister Judith. Issue, named in his will dated January 27, 1770, and in that of his wife's father: Henry, William, Joseph, Robert, Mary, Ann, Jane, Frances, Sarah.

Henry, son of Joseph, "Major Harry" of the Revolution (often confused with another Major Harry, grandson of Stokeley's brother Henry), married Elizabeth Wetherall July 27, 1776 and died January 10, 1829. His widow was pensioned. His will was recorded in one of the lost Culpeper records. From the decree in Clark v. Towles it appears that he had a son Joseph; according to a court order of October 17, 1835, his land was divided between his widow and Eleanor W., Mildred B., William, George and John W. Towles. Major Harry's share in the estate of his uncle Henry was awarded to "George Towles in his own right and as administrator of William Towles, Samuel De Camp administrator of Sarah De Camp, Daniel Ward administrator of Ellen Pratt, Thomas C. Brown administrator of John Towles, and the children of Joseph, a deceased son of Major Henry Towles".

It appears from the decree in Clark v. Towles that three of the children of Joseph and Sarah (Terrill) Towles died without issue, namely William, Robert and Frances. The latter married Edmund Willis, January 18, 1787. Her husband's name is incorrectly transcribed as "Edward" on the marriage record at Culpeper.

Of the other children of Joseph and Sarah (Terrill) Towles, Joseph (Captain in the Revolution) married Mary Wetherall February 16, 1786, Mary married Richard Sims, Ann married Adam Snyder, Jane married James Sims December 29, 1790, and Sarah married William Rowe March 31, 1787.

By the decree in Clark v. Towles awards were made to "the Sarah Samuel Vawter, Abigail, James Ennis, and Lucy married James Kirby and Ann married Jacob Ayler. The will of John, son of Thomas Spicer, dated January 8, 1800, and of his wife Rachel, dated January 20, 1814, name children Nancy Wright, Rachel Tinsley, Henry, Thomas, Robert, Polly, Susanna and Nancy Walker Spicer. From the deeds it appears that Rachel's husband was William Stone, that Mary married Jasper Morris and that Henry married Nancy Ayres. The children of James and Lucy Kirby are named in the deeds as Thomas, Joseph, Lucy, Lewis, Henry and Frances, wife of John Ward.

Mary Ann, daughter of Thomas and Ann, married Isaac Mosley. In the deeds in Clark v. Towles cause, a share of the estate of Henry Towles, the second, was awarded to "the representatives, heirs and devisees, of Jane Mosley, a half sister of the intestate". Her descendants have not been traced.

(2) Joseph, son of Stokeley and Ann, married Sarah, sister of John and Robert Terrill, Jr., respectively, of the above and other Terrills. Issue, named in his will dated January 27, 1775, and in that of his wife's father: Henry, William, Joseph, Robert, Mary, Ann, Jane, Frances, Sarah.

Henry, son of Joseph, ("Major Henry" in the Revolution) (often confused with another Major Henry, grandson of Stokeley), (Major Henry) married Elizabeth Sorrell July 27, 1778 and died January 19, 1828. His widow was pensioned. His will was recorded in one of the lost Culpeper volumes. From the deeds in Clark v. Towles it appears that he had a son Joseph, according to a court order of October 17, 1836, his land was divided between his widow and Frances W., Mildred H., William, George and John W. Towles. Major Henry's share in the estate of his uncle Henry was awarded to George Towles in his own right and as administrator of William Towles, Edmund De Grace administrator of Sarah, De Grace Ward administrator of Eliza Ward, Thomas C. Brown administrator of John Towles, and the children of Joseph, a deceased son of Major Henry Towles.

It appears from the record in Clark v. Towles that three of the children of Joseph and Sarah (Terrill) Towles died without issue, namely William, Robert and Frances. The latter married Deborah Wright, January 26, 1781. Her husband's name is incorrectly transcribed as "Powell" on the marriage record at Culpeper.

Of the other children of Joseph and Sarah (Terrill) Towles, Joseph (Captain in the Revolution) married Mary Whitford February 12, 1780. Mary married Herbert Brown. Ann married Alexander Duncan. Jane married James Wise December 26, 1779, and Sarah married William Hume March 27, 1787.

In the deeds in Clark v. Towles proofs were made in the cinda, wife of Daniel A. Yowell, Frances, wife of Henry Quaintance, Jane, wife of Walker W. Yowell and "the children of Sarah Utz, when discovered". Sarah Snyder married Abram Utz, November 1, 1795.

The will of Richard Sims, at Culpeper, made April 6, proved June 19, 1809, named sons Joseph T., Henry, Edmund, Garnett, Rob[illegible] Terrill and Richard Merlin Sims, daughters Sallie Butler, Avee (Averilla) Collins, Nancy Tucker and Mary Foster. Son Joseph T., son-in-law Amon Butler and wife Mary executors.

X Frances, daughter of Stokeley and Ann, married Richard Vawter, whose will, dated March 1, 1803, named son-in-law Elijah Wilhoit, daughters Margaret Breedlove, Lucy Finks, Tabitha Rouse, Ann Vawter and Alpha Shelton. Frances Vawter's will, dated November 11, 1811, named daughters Alpha Shelton, Ann Vawter and Nancy Wilhoit. From the decree in Clark v. Towles it appears that Richard and Frances had two sons, John and Russell; that the former was living in 1845; that Russell married his cousin, Mary Sparks, and died without issue; that the husbands of Margaret, Alpha, Ann and Tabitha were, respectively, John Breedlove, Robert Chilton, Philemon Vawter and Adam Rouse; and that Lucy, wife of Mark Finks, left nine children: Elbert, William and Paschal Finks, Tabitha, wife of Joel Grayson, Julia, wife of Elliot Wilhoit, Judith Wayman, Ann Broyles, Lucy, wife of Abner Berry, and Polly Wilhoit.

XI Stokeley, son of Stokeley and Ann, married Margery, daughter of Edward Ballinger of Culpeper. Issue, named in deed of gift dated 1792; Henry, married Alphia Tucker March 29, 1792, Mary, married Benjamin Spicer March 20, 1787, and Catherine. From the tax records in the state library at Richmond it appears that this Stokeley died during or about the year 1800 and that his son Henry disposed of his plantation in Culpeper after 1830. No other deed or record relating to the family has been found.

XII Judith, daughter of Stokeley and Ann, married Robert Terrill brother of Sarah, wife of her brother Joseph and of John, husband of her niece Ann. They moved to Lincoln county, Kentucky. From the decree in Clark v. Towles and other records it appears that they had the following children: John, Henry, Robert, Joseph, [illegible]mund, Ann, Clara and Dicie. John's widow died in Madison county, Virginia, leaving a will dated June 24, 1816, naming sons John and Micajah, daughters Milly Brown, Patsy Pratt, Judith Aylor and Lucy wife of Thornton Harrison. The decree shows that Judith's husband was John H. Aylor; that Milly Brown was dead leaving issue: John T., Coleman, William, Armistead and Thomas Brown, Polly wife of Pannill Taylor, Frances wife of ——— Sparks, Eunice wife of Robert Snyder and Patsy wife of Benjamin Sparks; that Lucy Harrison was dead leaving issue: Ellis, Newton, Thornton T., Mary and Lucy G. Harrison, and Frances wife of John Boswell; that Patsy Pratt had, by her husband, Thomas Pratt, Jonathan, Milton, Alexander, William, Lucinda, Mary and ——— Pratt.

XIII Lucy, daughter of Stokeley and Ann, married Robert Garnett, for whom see Green's Culpeper notes. The decree and other papers in Clark v. Towles show that they had the following children: Oliver (moved to Mercer county, Kentucky), Elizabeth, married James Waggoner, Sarah, married John Waggoner, Mary, married Thomas Waggoner, Ann, married Reuben Willis, Averilla, married William Payne (in Orange) January 8, 1793.

Mary Waggoner and Averilla Payne were dead in 1845. Mary left issue: William, Thomas, Peyton and Harriet Waggoner and Vallotta wife of Philip Jones, Mary wife of ——— Kincaid and Anna wife of ———. Averilla left Fanny wife of Ambrose Powell, Lucy wife of Robert Spilman, Maria, wife of May Medley, William, Franklin and Oliver Payne.

XIV Mary (second of the name), daughter of Stokeley and Jane (Sparks) Towles, married John Clark "of Clark's Mountain", and their issue will be given infra.

XV Henry (second of the name), son of Stokeley and Jane (Sparks) Towles, soldier and pensioner of the Revolution, never married. According to his pension declaration he lived "on the plantation where I was born". His will, which resulted in the Chancery suit alluded to, of record at Madison, made May 6, 1835, proved May 26, 1836, as "wholly in the handwriting of said Henry Towles, deceased", named Joseph Hume and Nathaniel Tatum executors and directed that all his property, real and personal, except three slaves (Mass, Sarah and George) and 23 shares of the stock of the Farmers Bank of Virginia, be sold and the proceeds disposed of as follows: $500 to sister Mary Clark; $1000 to Nancy Sanford, Bathsheba Booton, Betsy Carroll, Virginia Nash, Tabitha, Polly, John, Reuben and James Clark, children of William Clark, deceased, son of sister Mary; $1500 to Mary Newman and Harriet, Stokeley, Cordelia, Lucy, Julia, Henry and Edmund Clark, children of Henry Clark, son of sister Mary; $500 to Jane Turner, daughter of sister Mary and $1000 to Jane's children, William, Mary Ann, Julia, Robert, Sarah, Ellen, John and Jane Turner; $500 to Abner, son of sister Mary; $700 to John, son of sister Mary; $800 each to Reuben T. and James, sons of sister Mary; 5 shares of bank stock each to Sarah and Lucy, husband was John H. John TERRILL, Patriot of Virginia

John Terrill was born in 1731 in Orange County, Virginia, the son of Robert and Mary (Foster) Terrill. In 1755, he married Ann Elizabeth Towles, who was born January 19, 1739. John and Ann Elizabeth (Towles) Terrill had six children: Robert who married Ann Mallory; Henry who married Elizabeth Wetherall; Edmund who married Mary Jane Maxwell; Oliver who married Susannah Mallory; Elizabeth who married Revolutionary War patriot,Nathaniel Welch; and William.

Like his father, Robert Terrill, John Terrill, Jr. provided patriotic service to our country by furnishing beef for the Colonial Army in 1782 and 1783. He died at Madison County, Virginia, where his will was probated on March 24, 1803. His widow died soon after in 1805.

Julia (Mallory) Faulkner was the daughter of Uriel Mallory and Malinda Welch. She was born in Orange County, Virginia in1822 and died in Chilton County, Alabama in 1888. She came originally to Talladega County with her father and mother and older brother James Mallory. She is found living with her sister, Lucy, and her husband Mr. Wagner in the Lowdnes County, Alabama census in 1850. She first married a Dr. Nathan Clark, who I believe was from SC. They had one child that died in its first year. Dr. Clark passed on about the same time. In 1855 she married Mr. Samuel Hutchinson Faulkner in Autauga County, Alabama. (Sam had previously been married to Rebecca Sims and had a small daughter, Mary) THE FAULKNERS did quite well even through the Civil War, but things seem to have turned downward soon after. Julia is said to have had quite a hard time adjusting to the changes that loosing the war brought. Both Julia and Sam are buried in a FAMILY PLOT located on their homeplace (Originally in Autauga Co. now Chilton Co., AL.) Two of their sons are buried in the plot with them. Two daughters are buried around the corner in the Patillo Cemetery. My great grandfather, Tom, is probably buried somewhere in Navarro Co., Texas.

Mr. Rembert C. Alley, Sr.

Roswell, NM 88201

Dear Mr. Alley:

Ancestor of 608.21

This is to thank you for the very informative chart you sent recently. It will be a very helpful addition to our files--I'm pleased that I was able to add some data to your information on the families.

I note that you have no wife for Benjamin Cave (Chart HC-7). The will of Benjamin Cave (Orange Co. Will Book 2, p.330) dated June 26, 1762, pr. Aug. 26, 1762 names his wife, Hannah, as well as sons John, Benjamin, William and Richard, and daughters Elizabeth Johnson, Ann Cavender (probably Cavanaugh), Sarah Cave, and Hannah Cave.

Benjamin Cave's wife was Hannah Bledsoe, daughter of William Bledsoe, whose will is recorded in Culpeper Co. Will Book A, p.501, dated Dec. 27, 1769, pr. Apr. 19, 1770. Besides his wife, Elizabeth (maiden name unknown), he names sons George, Aaron, John, William, and Joseph, and daughters Hannah Cave, Millie Weatherall, Mary Powell. Another son, Moses, was already deceased.

There is a published genealogy of the Bledsoes (The Bledsoe Family, by John T. Bledsoe), but we do not have a copy of it, and I do not know how accurate it is. The abpve, though, I can document. Hopefully it will be of help in adding to your charts.

Sincerely,

Ann Miller, Research Historia

Following is from John Terrell As is stated on John Calvin's gravestone. He enlisted in the state of Virginia. He served duty in the War of 1812; was a private; served in a Captain Wilson's Company; Collier's Regiment. Some of the above information does not match what John said when he made an application for Bounty Land while living in Dearborn County, Indiana .As the following will show: State of Indiana

SS County of Dearborn On this twenty first day of December Eighteen hundred and fifty. personally appeared before me a Notary Public. within and for the County and State aforesaid. John Terrill aged fifty seven years . a resident of the town of Lawrenceburgh, County of Dearborn, State of Indiana. who being duly sworn according to law declares. that he is the identical John Terrill who was a private in the Company C commanded by Captain Andrew Madison. in the 12th Regiment of United States Infantry. commanded by Colonel Preston, he thinks, in the war with Great Britain declared by the United States on the 18th day of June 1812. that he enlisted according to the best of his recollection on or about the ___ day of September 1812 not positive as to time . at Wheeling in the State of Virginia and was recruited at said place according to the best of his recollection by a man by the name o f________ Crary, that he enlisted for the tour of Eighteen months /and continued in actual service in said war for the term of eighteen months. and was honorably discharged at Plattsburgh or Burlington on or about the ___ day of March 1814 as will appear by the muster rolls of his said Company. - That he obtained a written discharge . which he left with his mother in Wheeling, Virginia upon his return home. and has never seen it since. and supposes that it is lost. -
That he was recruited at Wheeling, went from there to Winchester, from there to Carlisle from there to Fort Erie, from there to For t George, from there to Sacketts Harbour, from there to a place called the French Mills, from there to Plattsburgh by way of the S Lawrence river. that in proceeding down said river in boats. they were fired upon by the British at Kingston. afterwards landed on the British side below Kingston. where they had an engagement in which Col. Preston was wounded in the thigh. He makes this declaration for the purpose of obtaining the bounty land to which he may be entitled under the "Act. granting bounty land to certain officers and soldiers who have been engaged in the Military Service of the United States" passed September 28th 1850.

Hi Fred,

I caught your genealogy files through the ancestry world tree as I was searching for some information on Irving T. Duke. Irving married my grandmother's sister, Helen. I thought I would share some information with you that I have on this small branch of your impressive file!

Irving a descendant of

608.210311

Helen Shannon:
b. 15 Nov 1900, Neihart, Cascade County, Montana
d. 15 July 2001, Greenville, South Carolina

Helen is the daughter of Peter Shannon (b. abt. 1870, Ireland) and Mary Jane Eddy (b. abt. 1872, England).

Helen had two sisters:

Estelline Shannon (my grandmother)
b. 21 Aug 1898, Neihart, Cascade County, Montana
d. 2 May 1975, Coronado, San Diego, California
Estelline married Carroll Burgess Jones and they had two children.

Evelyn WH Shannon
b. 16 Jan 1897, Neihart, Cascade County, Montana
d. July 1985, Harlowtown, Wheatland, Montana
Evelyn married Anton Poirier and they two children (that I am aware of).

The Shannons did indeed settle in Bremerton, Washington for a while, after a bad storm destroyed a bumper crop on their Montana farm. My father tells me that Peter died when he was run over by horses, and it is unknown if he was on or off the proverbial wagon at that time!

Irving T. Duke finished his career as a Vice Admiral in the United States Navy. He had quite a distinguished career. My mom tells me that he and Helen (Duke and Duchy were their official nicknames) were fabulous people. Helen had a penchant for high tea and long gloves, and was a kick and a half after a drink, I'm told. She and Irving had one daughter, Terrill Duke Walters.

I hope this information helps you some! If you need anything else, please don't hesitate to let me know. =)

TERRILL v TERRILL
Parties: ELIZABETH L. TERRILL, Executrix of ROBERT TERRILL against ELIZABETH F. COLEMAN, an Infant, by THOMAS COLEMAN, her Guardian assigned by the Court to defend her in this suit; ELIZABETH L. TERRILL in her own right and as Executrix of JAMES COLEMAN.
BILL filed October 1, 1834.

To RICHARD H. FIELD, Judge of the Circuit Superior Court of Law and Chancery held for the County of Orange. The Bill of Complaint of ELIZABETH L. TERRILL, Executrix of ROBERT TERRILL, sheweth to the Court that some time in the year 1825, JAMES COLEMAN, formerly of this County, died, seized and possessed of a considerable estate, both real and personal, which he disposed of by a last Will and Testament which was duly proved and recorded in the County Court of Orange and administration thereof granted to ELIZABETH L. COLEMAN one of the Executors named in the sd Will, the other refusing to qualify, an office copy of said Will together with certificate of your oratrix's qualification as such are herewith filed as part of this Bill/ By the Will, the Testator after the payment of his debts, directs the balance of his Estate to be kept together for the benefit of his Wife, ELIZABETH L. COLEMAN (who is now ELIZABETH TERRILL), and his Daughter, ELIZABETH F. COLEMAN, until his said wife should marry, or his sd daughter should marry or come of age, and on the occurrence of any one of these events, he directs his Estate be equally divided between his said wife and daughter, one half to the one, and the other half to the other./ Your oratrix further shews that in execution of the sd Will the Executrix went on to pay off many of debts of said Testator which were considerable, in the meantime keeping the estate together, and had made considerable progress in the payment of the debts (though there were still considerable debts due from the Estate) when on the (blank) day of (blank) 182- she intermarried with ROBERT TERRILL. The payment of the debts was thus deferred for the convenience of the estate, the creditors not urging a speedier payment by legal means; and his said marriage and by virtue thereof, ROBERT TERRILL became entitled to the Administration in right of his said Wife, ELIZABETH, and took possession of the Estate of JAMES COLEMAN, then remaining, consisting of land, negroes, stock, household and other furniture, and other property; he proceeded to pay off some of the debts of JAMES COLEMAN which were still unsatisfied and kept the Estate together without any division of it between his Wife and himself in her right, and ELIZABETH F. COLEMAN, up to his death which occurred some time in the course of the present year. No settlement of the administration of ELIZABETH L. COLEMAN or of ROBERT TERRILL in his right on the Estate of JAMES COLEMAN, has at any time been made either before or since her marriage with ROBERT TERRILL, or before or since the death of the said ROBERT, and there are still debts due and unsatisfied from the estate of JAMES COLEMAN but ROBERT TERRILL on the (blank) day of (blank) executed a Deed of Trust on his interest in the Estate of JAMES COLEMAN, an office copy of which is herewith filed as part of this Bill./

Your oratrix is advised that by virtue of his sd marriage and subsequent possession of the property aforsd that ROBERT TERRILL became entitled in his own right to that part of the Estate of

JAMES COLEMAN which his said wife was entitled to; and that that passes along with his other Estate under his Will to his legal representative, your oratrix, for the said ROBERT TERRILL left a Will which was duly proved and recorded in the County of Orange, and your oratrix qualified as Executrix thereof; a copy of the Will and the Certificate of qualification are herewith filed also. The claims of your oratrix on this property are resisted by ELIZABETH L. TERRILL in her own right and as Executrix of JAMES COLEMAN, and your oratrix is advised that in this matter she can obtain no relief in a Court of Law by reason of the strict and direct rules thereof, and that matters of this nature are strictly and peculiarly cognizable & relievable in a Court of Equity; to the end therefore that the sd ELIZABETH F. COLEMAN, who is an Infant, may by some suitable Guardian ad litem to be appointed her by this Court to defend her in this suit, and the said ELIZABETH L. TERRILL in her own right and also as Executrix of JAMES COLEMAN be made defendant to this Bill and compelled to answer this Bill fully, and that it may be determined by this Court whether your oratrix be not as she claims to be entitled as the representative of ROBERT TERRILL to some part of the property coming from the Estate of JAMES COLEMAN, and if so, that an account may be taken by the order of this Court to ascertain and determine what the property is to which she is entitled, and that a division of the sd property may be made according to the Will of JAMES COLEMAN, and that her interest as Executrix of the sd ROBERT TERRILL may be decreed to her, and for other and further general relief may it please the Court to let a subpoena, etc.

HOLLADAY

The Survey in settlement of this suit shows:
The above is a description of a tract of land belonging to the Estate of JAMES COLEMAN decd and divided by Commissioners between ELIZABETH TERRILL and her Daughter, ELIZABETH COLEMAN. That part marked Lot No. 1 containing 193 acres was assigned to ELIZABETH TERRILL, and that part marked lot No. 2 containing 312 acres was assigned to ELIZABETH COLEMAN, with the Mill lot four acres. (The East side of lot no. 1 borders on Pleasant Run; the West side on Brock's Bridge Road, at the South corner Pleasant Run joins Terry's Run. On lot no. 2, the north edge borders the meanders of the Pamunkey River, with the mill pond formed from the river at the northernmost corner. The 10 1/2 acres of timber land borders Brock's Bridge Road on its western sides.)

The Tract of land containing 114 1/2 acres and marked on the Plat Lot No. 1 (this plat and woodland plat) both being JAMES COLEMAN Dec'd portion of the Dower of ELIZABETH COLEMAN dec'd, was assigned to ELIZABETH TERRILL with 193 acres before named makes her portion in the division 318 acres. Surveyed by direction of Commissioners. JAMES NELSON JR. SOC

RUCKER v RUCKER

To the Judge of the Circuit Superior Court of Law and Chancery for the County of Orange sitting in Chancery complaining sheweth to the Court your orator MINOR RUCKER, Extr. of JOEL RUCKER, deceased, that some time in the year, JULIUS OLIVER of the County of Orange died seized and possessed of an estate, both real and personal, which he gave the proceeds of the sale of a tract of land and of a negro, both in his possession at the time of his death, to be equally divided between his two Brothers, JAMES and DURRIT OLIVER (a copy of his Will exhibited with this Bill), BLYFIL RUCKER qualified as the Executor of the said JULIUS. Some time after the death of the sd JULIUS, JOEL RUCKER, the Testator of your orator, purchased the interest of JAMES OLIVER in the said land and obtained from him a Deed for it which is herewith filed marked A; he also purchased the interest of said DURRIT OLIVER in the Estate of the sd JULIUS, both real and personal (with a small reservation) and obtained from him too a Deed which is herewith filed marked B, and both of sd Deeds are prayed to be taken as part of this Bill. For this property, he paid full consideration to said JAMES and DURRIT, who were both men of full age and they put him in possession of the land.

Walk Humbly" The Agricultural Journal of James Mallory, 1843-1877, The University of Alabama Press,Tuscaloosa, 1997 page xiv James Mallory was born in Orange County, Virginia, in 1807, the son of Melinda Welch Mallory and Uriel Mallory, "a man remarkable for neatness and correctness of life," traits James apparently inherited from his father, page 1: May 1840 a most awful rain fell which deluged the whole country the effect of which spread sickness and death through the land. Scarcely a family escaped distress. We lost a darling boy (John Marshall), my Father, Mrs. Darby, Uncle Olivers wife & youngest daughter. All were called on to try the realities of another world--such heavy afflictions sunk us low & made us feel our nothingness before God. page 2: During the summer of this year 42 alarm was excited inus for the health of Betsey Darby. She continued to linger until the last of July when she made the most happy & triumphant death. My Father and Mother, Mrs. Darby, Betsey Darby, Ann Welch wre 3 members of the Baptist Church ay we learn to imitate their virtues & so live as to meet them in heaven

1 John TERRILL b.1756 in Culpeper Co.Va. He d. bef 25 Dec 1815. (son of Robert Terrill and Judith Towles)

Judith born on 13 Apr 1735 in Middlesex Co. Va and was christened on 23 Apr 1735 in Christ's Church Parish Culpeper Co. Va. She died in 1786 in Orange Co. Va. The Towles Family of Virginia is nearly famous. They descended all from one man, Henry Towles formerly of Liverpool become colonist. And they served as aides to General George Washington, became legislators, and even television script writers. Henry Towles is variously said to have arrived in this country from Liverpool, England in 1654 or 1664. He settled in Middlesex Co., Virginia. His son Henry Towles II purchased a piece of land at the mouth of the Rappahannock River. To this day that piece of land is known as Towles Point. The younger Henry's brother Stokeley settled in Culpepper Co. Virginia, and shipped cotton to Liverpool for sale in England. Their descendants such as Col. Oliver Towles faught in the Revolutionary War, at the Battle of Fallen Timbers under General Anthony Wayne, and the War of 1812. Many of them moved south and west to the Carolinas, Ohio, Kentucky, Missouri, and Texas. The name is either Scottish or Welsh, and it is known at least one of the family coats of arms is registered in Scotland.

son of oliver + Mary Guillson ? (Gillison)

The Towles family first came to America sometime in the 1650s or 60s when Henry Towles set foot in the then English colony of Virginia. Of his family back in England we know little. We only know he arrived here from Liverpool, a place his family maintained contact with for several years shipping livestock and other goods. Henry was appointed constable of Accomac County in 1681. His occupation was always listed as planter. He married Ann Stokeley, daughter of Jamestown pioneer John Stokeley.

Judith was the daughter of Stockley and Ann Vallot Towles. Stokely Towles of the County of Culpeper and Parish of Brumfield being sick and weak of body. To my son Joseph Towles my dividend of land beginning at the mouth of the Little Run and running from thence the several cources up the said run to the Mountain ground, from thence up the Hollow to John Layton's line. And the rest of the land which I had of Thos. Walker from the south side of the said run and so up the run the several cources to the said John Layton's line I give to Isaac Medley. To my youngest son Henry Towles the old Negro man named Charles. To my well beloved wife Jane Towles and the two (sic) children which I had by her Mary Towles and Henry Towles three feather beds and furniture. To my wife and the two children I had by her fourteen head of cattle such as she thinks proper, and likewise all my sheep horse and mair, bridles and saddles, cart and wheels; also my crop of tobacco, corn and wheat and all other grain with all the fodder; and likewise all the goods and I have sent for to Liverpool by Capt. Gayworth; all my hoggs and the crop of cotton.

To my wife and the two children I had by here my chest of draws, walnut chest, one looking glass, three iron pots such as she thinks fit to chuse; also two scillets and two tables and half my chairs to her liking; and half of my pewter and all tin pans and all my bee hives and all my wooden ware with all fowls and all the fowles upon the plantation and all the beef and bacon that is killed in the house and about four pistoles I have owing to me which I give to my youngest son Henry Towles which I desire to give him learning. And two spining wheels, one linnin wheel and the other a woollen one and three glass bottles. And if either of these children Mary Towles or Henry Towles should die before they come to man and womans estate that of the said estate shall to the other.

The rest of my estate escept the above mentioned legaces may be equally devided amoungst all my children old and young but I desire that the said estate may not come to an appraisement. Stokley Towles (his signature)
Wit: John Layton Thos. (X) Layton

N. B. I give to my son John Towles my best coat and jacket and breeches and my great coat and fine hatt to my son Joseph Towles.

Will: 15 Dec 1757. Exhibited into Court by Jane Towles, widow and executrix. Proved by the oaths of John Layton and Thomas Layton. Spencer Bobo the other executor in the said will mentioned personally appeared before the Court and refused to take the burten of the execution thereof. Hi Fred,

Here is the package for Emily Jane Reynolds Mann Henderson Hickman. Everything concerning Emily came from Leslie Calvert, Laporte, IN. Her e-mail is tymtrvlr/csi.net. The picture of the ladies is compliments of me. Emily's brother married Isabel White, 13 JULY 1865, Robinson, Crawford Co. IL. Sarah Reynolds Williamson was the daughter of Isabel and James. She married William Albert Williamson, Wapella, DeWitt Co. IL., 27 NOV 1889. She was my grandmother. Effie was my Aunt, and Stacy was my gr-aunt. The Swearingen line married into many different lines---many of them coming from KY. I do not know who Lily was, but think she was a Swearingen. If you need more about Emily's siblings, I have them. Mildred m. James S. DeWitt in Taylor Co. KY (Campbellsville), 5 MAY 1855. The Reynolds removed to Crawford Co. IL sometime after Mildred married and before 1860 census. Emily's father is believed to have remarried Martha Pearson. Leslie and I first thought this to be our James. I am not so sure at this point. I can't find a burial for him. The Latter Day Saints show him as being born about 1817, That would make him about 13 when he married. I know they married them young in the days past, so it is possible he married as soon as he could father a child. Poor women!!! Also, in the obit for Emily, is her brother William Thomas Reynolds. He married Jane "Letta" Weatherman in Robinson, Crawford Co. She was previously married to William Charles Brush. They had one son, Charles Brush, who took the name of Reynolds. William and Letta had James Thomas and William. James Reynolds and Eliza Ann Spurling were married, 1 JULY 1830, Green Co. KY Marriage Records #1, 1793-1836. It is unknown what happened to Eliza. I believe she died in Louisville, KY---and Leslie believes she died in Hart Co. KY. A son, John, age 4 and born in KY shows in the 1860 Crawford Co. IL census with James and Martha Reynolds. James and Martha married in 1858, so John could not be Martha Pearson' son (with James). Her three daughter's from a previous marriage shows as Catherine, Mary, and Abigail PIERSON. The IL Statewide Marriage Index shows Martha as a Pearson. Leslie and I think Eliza died after John was born, and James brought the family to Crawford Co. to be close to other relatives. They seemed to be between Hart, Jefferson, Taylor, Green, and Crawford Co. frequently. Eliza Ann Spurling was born to Henson Spurling and Elizabeth Williams. Eliza is sometimes confused with her half-sister, Elizabeth Spurling. Her mother was Mary "Polly" Reed. Henson was known to have at least 24 proven children. He left no will, but his estate was probated in Green Co. in 1838. Mary Polly was his wife at that time. 1814

I will close this out as I do not want to give you a lot that you may not want. If you need more info concerning James Daniel, Emily, Mildred, and William Thomas, I will be happy to send that to you. James Daniel and William Thomas served with the 60 IL US INF, Crawford Co. (3 yrs). I really do not have anymore on Emily. She was buried on top of her first husband, John W. Mann, New Hebron Cemetery, Crawford Co. IL. His parents were John Mann and Julia Pickett Mann. John shows born in PA and Julia shows born in VT. There is an ABEL Mann in the census image I included. Leslie is researching one CAIN Mann, VA. It is amazing to me how all the neighbors of our ancestors can unlock the key to finding the family lines!!!

Please feel free to use the information I sent whoever you see fit. Fred, this has been a big learning experience for me; both in the personal lives of our ancestors, and the historical aspect of them. I never realized there were so many divorces back then. Goodness, I thought that was unheard of. Of course, I know many died when very young and had to remarry for their children. I really appreciate all that my ancestors went through.

Take care,

Shari

Shari Phillips Horton Beaufort, SC sharuck@charter.net

Note: James Daniel is living with Emily in 1860. His age shows as 14, but he was b. 5 July 1844, Campbellsville, Taylor Co. Ky.

Emily's sister, Mildred Ann DeWitt - nee Reynolds - had many children, only one Emma, living to maturity. Emma m. Jesse Wright. Jesse caught Emma "fooling" around. He remarried Stacy McCorpin (not sure on that name) & Emma did not file for divorce until 1880, right after Jesse remarried. Amazing. How Naive Am I!

WAPELLA CITIZEN DIED SUNDAY

✓ Resided in That Village for the Past Twenty-Eight Years.

Another old soldier answered the last roll call last Sunday when J. D. Reynolds died at his home in Wapella at 7 a. m. after an illness from paralysis, with which he was stricken last September.

Deceased was born in Kentucky July 5, 1844, and came to Illinois with his parents at the age of 10 years.

The family first settled in Crawford county, going to Wapella 28 years ago, where Mr. Reynolds resided until his death. He enlisted in the army at the age of 16, being a member of Company D, 16th Ill. Inft. He was married to Miss White in 1872. Besides the widow he leaves surviving three children, Irving Reynolds and Mrs. Stacy Hames of Wapella and Mrs. Sarah Williamson, of Bloomington. Mr. Reynolds was a devout Christian, and an earnest worker in the Christian church at Wapella, of which he was a member.

Funeral services were held from the Christian church at Wapella at 2 p. m. Monday. Interment in the Sugar Grove cemetery.

ADOPTED RESOLUTION

At the close of the session Tuesday the board of supervisors adopted the following resolution:

"Whereas, There is a very extensive agitation in the state of Illinois on the well known road question, and as members of the county boards are taking action thereon, and especially on the proposed legislation at Springfield in the Tice bill, which revolutionizes the present road and bridge system of Illinois, by proposing to abolish two of our highway commissioners in each township and retaining the superintendent appointed by the state engineer at Springfield, acting under the governor.

"Be it therefore resolved by the board of supervisors of DeWitt county, Ill., that we are unalterably opposed to the provisions of the bill, which limits or curtails the authority of highway commissioners as constituted today; and that we are opposed to the appointment of the so-called county engineer or superintendent plan of managing our highways. And we accordingly instruct our state senator and our three representatives to use all reasonable efforts to defeat these provisions.

A salary resolution, authorizing the payment to the state's attorney of $1,900 in quarterly installments, being the county's part of his yearly salary of $2,300, allowed by statute and an additional allowance of $30 per month for clerk hire and office

CAREFUL DRIVER OF HORSES

Some Men Can Get More Out of Animals in One Round With Plow Than Another Will in Two.

How many acres of tillable farm land will one horse work? This, of course, depends on the kind of farming done, on the kind of machinery used and on the efficiency of the man who works the horses. It would not be difficult to find 100 acres of tillable land worked in one case with two good horses and from this on up to six work horses. Probably more depends on the ability of the driver to handle his horses than any other one thing. Some drivers will take more out of their horses at one round with the plow than another will in two rounds. In one case the plowing is done in a haphazard sort of way, the horses are tangled at the ends, are backed and turned unnecessarily, are jerked viciously when out of line, and possibly the harnesses do not fit properly. In the other case the horses are given a steady, true gait which is kept up, the turns are smooth and without yelling and jerking and the driver watches the working of his plow and fit of his harnesses all day long. No team should be worked over an hour at hard pulling before the harnesses are looked over to see that all parts set properly. To some this carefulness comes naturally; to others it never will come. Efficiency in the driver means efficiency in the team, and it is a pleasure to see horses worked well.

HOW TO MAKE A CHEAP WELL

Wall Can Be Laid Five or Six Feet High, Arching It at Top With Large Stone for Covering.

It is impossible to drive a pipe for a well in some localities, and stones are scarce to lay a wall in a dug well, writes J. H. Andre of Wisconsin in the Farm and Home. In such cases the wall can be laid 5 or 6 feet high, arching it at the top with large stones to 15 or 18 inches in diameter, and cover it with a large flat stone, a, with a hole in the center to admit a 6-inch pipe. Place a stone, b, in the bottom of the well 18 inches in diameter and 4 inches thick. Concrete is best. Make a concrete cone, c, 3 feet long, 18 inches in diameter, at the bottom, 3 inches thick and of a size to fit the bell end of an 8-inch sewer pipe at the top. The large end of the cone will need openings in the side to allow the water to enter freely when pumping. Place the large end of the cone on the stone.

The first length, d, of sewer pipe can be 8 inches. When the pipe, e, reaches above where the well is stoned it can be reduced to 6 inches a few lengths and then f to 4 inches.

SECURING PROFIT IN SHEEP

If Pure-Bred and Well Cared for They Pay Handsomely—Need Shelter in Severe Weather.

My sheep are pure American Merinos, all registered. Two of this kind I can keep in summer or winter with the same care and feed with which one of most any other breed can be kept, says a writer in an exchange. My sheep barn is a closed building with a broad door so that the sheep can go in and out without crowding each other. The feeding racks in one room are on the outside; the other room has a double rack through the middle. I give my sheep a large run in the fall so they go into winter quarters in good condition and never leave them out in heavy rains through the season.

The breeding ewes are let out every morning in winter to eat their grain, which is oats, and to give them exercise. I feed them hay three times a day. Some only feed twice. I only give them a little at noon time. I also give their pens a litter of oat straw two or three times a week. I try to have my sheep shorn before they drop their lambs so the little fellows have no trouble to find their first meal. The ewe that is in good condition has a good supply of milk and almost always owns her lamb. I never keep salt by them, but feed it to them once a week. I have water by them all the time. I never allow the ram to run with the ewes. The rams that are to be used are fed three-quarters oats and one-quarter wheat mixed. The young lambs in the fall and winter are fed twice daily a grain ration of oats and sometimes wheat bran half mixed.

DEVICE FOR LOADING SWINE

Detailed Instructions and Illustration Given for Construction of Implement Handy on Farm.

The device described and shown herewith may be found very handy on any farm. Take a mower truck, hammer and cold chisel and knock off the prongs and so make a smooth wheel. Then drive out the pins that go through the shaft. Take the sickle bars from an old binder for sills. Lay the guard holes down and stick a bolt in the holes where the pins were and through the holes where the guards were. Then you have a hole every two inches and by taking off the burrs you can change to any height from a high wagon to a bob sled. Put a

AGED WOMAN DIES SUNDAY Mrs. Emily J. Baker succumes to effects of burns received Thursday. Mrs. Emily Jane Baker died at 2 o'clock Sunday, afternoon at the home of her son, H. D. Mann, near New Hebron, death resulting from burns which she had received on the Thursday previous. Mrs Baker being advanced in age was rather feeble and had been making her home for some time with her son and family. On this day Mrs. Mann was away from home and Mr. Mann with some help was doing some butchering. He had arranged the fire in the house and told his mother to let it alone. Fearing that some accident might occur. He and others frequently went into the house to see if everything was all right but they could not keep a constant watch. Finally, to their dismay the aged woman ran from the house with her clothing in flames. Mr. Mann threw his coat around his mother and extinguished the flames, but she was pretty badly burned and death resulted from the the shock. Mrs. Mann was born in Louisville, Ky., August 12 1841, the daughter of James and Anne Reynolds. She came to this county with her parents when about 13 years old. She united in marriage with John W. Mann, October 28, 1858. She is survived by the following children: Mrs. W.W. Daugherty, Duffau, Texas. Mrs W. E. Ives, Wapella, Ill.; Geo. P. Mann, Oblong; Mrs. H. E. Highsmith and H.D. Mann, Robinson. One daughter, Mrs. Delia Dennis died at Olivet, Ella and another , Flora Belle, died in infancy. Eighteen grandchildren and 17 great grandchildren also survive. Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Tuesday at New Hebron by Rev. H. W. White and buriel will be made in the New Hebron cemetery. W. C. T. U. NOTES

The mothers' meeting at the home of Mrs. Kessler, Main street, last Thursday, was quite well attended, and proved to be one of the best of the year.

The Evangelistic department was very ably represented by Mrs. Hill, who has started a systematic study of the Bible, which she handles in her own original way. In view of the fact that all churches are urging a "win one" campaign, and the extremely urgent need of evangelistic work, it is felt by all the members, that this quiet study of the word at this time will result in much good, since no one can successfully present a cause without a thorough knowledge of it. So to be a real evangelist one must "be able to give a reason for the hope within us."

This one part of the monthly program is surely worth whatever effort it may take to get to the meeting.

Mrs. Kessler gave a reading in a very pleasing manner, and the reading given by Mrs. Titus, one of the charter members who has been blind for a number of years, touched every heart, as she stood before us, with her patient, smiling face and eyes, forever closed to the light of this world, giving us a lesson that will stay with us for many days to come.

Mrs. Titus has been taught to read the blind printing, and to use her own words "my knowledge is all due to the help of one of the members of this society" for when the instructions came, I tried and finally gave up in despair, saying I never can [illegible] "Well, you've just got to learn." so she took the instructions home, mastered them herself first and then taught it. We've always been told that the blind have an over-developed sense of touch—this friend did not have it, but the method was mastered by both teacher and pupil and what a day of rejoicing they had when they finished the primer. Now Mrs. Titus has access to a circulating library for the blind, in Philadelphia and she reads history, biography, fiction and poetry. She told us with much glee of a book she had just finished called "Pranks"—being the escapades of a man past 40 years old. Can you estimate the value of this knowledge to one so shut in? This service was rendered so naturally and simply that we only learned of it by accident, yet it is only one of numerous services rendered by this splendid bunch of Christian women. Think you it was worth while?

Mrs. Burt, the president, gave a very pleasing talk, and asked that we try to "put first things first." Making this a safe and pleasant city for the youth doing with our might what our hands find to do, and so bring about more fully the much talked of brotherhood of man.

The new members were initiated and the white ribbon badge presented to them.

OBITUARY

Elijah Brumgton Nuttall, son of Archelus Moon and Mary Nuttall, was born October 15, 1847, departed this life November 15, 1920, aged 73 years, 1 month. On December 22, 1870 he was united in marriage to Martha A. Drake. To this union were born seven children: Mary Francis Walters, Jonathan Price, of Robinson; Sarah Belle Vanhorn of Colorado; Carl Brumgton of Robinson; Archelus Filmore of Chicago; [illegible] Orville T. of Flat Rock. At about the age of 25 he united with the Methodist church and at different times expressed to his family his future hope in Christ.

By occupation the departed was a farmer and stockman, and by his industrious application provided a goodly home for his family. He was of a friendly disposition and his home was a hearth of hospitality to all. He leaves to mourn their loss a widow, seven children, 25 grandchildren, three having preceded him in death, and five great grandchildren; two brothers, and a host of other relatives and friends.

With sorrowing hearts the loved ones bow in submission to the inevitable, trusting in the hope of immortality, and now may peace be to his ashes and loving honor to his memory.

LOOK! K. OF P.

der of the famous Oneida Institute in the mountains of the south.

The initial number of the lyceum course tonight will be but a sample of many goo dthings that the association is making possible for the citizens to hear. They will feel well repaid if a large audience packs the Methodist church tonight, testifying their appreciation of the opportunity.

Secure a season ticket than attend each number. To acquire money adds tl one's fortune, but to attend lectures and entertainments of this character adds t oene's self. Money may vanish but experiences of this character are yours forever.

Of the great personality, the pleasing manner, of the gripping, simple story of this wonderful sincere man we will leave you to judge. We know what your verdict will be. We believe it will paralel the experience of the Northern Indiana Teachers' association who recenty heard him, five thousand strong, and whose experience is described as follows:

"The people looked at the speaker, then at one another, smiled, nodded approval, refrained from applause for fear of losing a word. When it was over, friend met friend with 'Well! Did you ever hear anything like it? A great program, this the climax.'"

REGULATION BY STATE IS BEST

Springfield, Ill., November 22.—Statewide regulation of the telephone by the public utilities commission has proved to be for the best interests of the people, resolutions adopted by the Illinois Independent Telephone association at its annual meeting state. Fixing of rates must be by a disinterested and expert body such as the state commission, if investment in utilities and their further extension for the convenience of the people is to continue, the resolutions state.

Dr. R. E. Gordon of El Paso, who was re-elected president, stated that $125,000,000 of additional money should be obtained at once and invested in telephones in the state if the present demand for further service is to be met. He stated that this could only be accomplished thru investors being shown that the same fairness will exist in the treatment of the utilities as is dealt out to other lines of industry. Other officers elected by the association for the coming year were E. S. Sterrett, of Henry, vice president; B. M. Burke, Carlinville, secretary-treasurer; Orville F. Berry, Carthage, general [illegible]field, executive secretary. Directors elected were T. C. Ainsworth, Bloomington; L. E. Pitcher, Dixon; A. R. Patterson, Streator; A. B. Minton, Murphysboro; F. A. Norris, Monmouth; W. H. Bassett, O'Fallon; F. A. Weber, Pekin; C. L. Fisher, Pontiac; Dr. J. G. Schwaz, Jerseyville; Ning Eley, Desplaines; H. H. Knipe, Olney; E. D. Glasdon, Pittsfield; S. C. More about Emily Jane Reynolds Mann Henderson Baker:
Emily's death certificate from the State of IL shows she was born in Louisville, KY, 12 AUG 1841. Her obituary states she was born in Louisville, Jefferson Co. KY. It would be reasonable for this researcher to conclude that Emily was born in Louisville, KY. Her brother, William, was born in Louisville, 17 MAR 1839. Due to the migration of this family which is shown with the marriage of Emily's parents; and the birth of her brother, James Daniel in Taylor Co. KY, this family was migrating to the northwest. The marriage license of Emily to her second husband, Hickman Henderson, shows she was born in Hart Co. KY. Leslie Calvert feels that Hart Co. KY is the correct birthplace for Emily. The marriage license only lists her father's first name, and her mother's last name of Spurling is misspelled. Leslie feels that since Emily was there in person to give the information that Hart Co. KY is correct. As one can tell, there is disagreement on this. All documentation this researcher has found indicates strongly that Emily Jane Reynolds was born in Louisville, KY. Many errors can be found in documents, for example, censuses and death certificates. Many times a neighbor may have been the informant for a death certificate, and just told who they thought were the parents or where born. Emma Highsmith, Emily's daughter, was the informant of her death certificate. In the days past, many children did not know where or when their parents were born. Joseph S. Baker was still surviving at the time of Emily's death. A Petition to "Administor" Emily's estate was brought forth by her son, Harvey D. Mann. On 15 DEC 1920, Joseph S. Baker relinquished and renounced all, right, claim, and preference to the estate of the said deceased. The Hon. John C. Maxwell, Judge of the County Court of Crawford Co. IL, presided over the proceeding. Emily's personal estate was estimated to be worth the sum of $80.00. Joseph S. Baker owned 90 acres in Honey Creek Township.

(Petition for Letters of Administration--Constitution Print, Robinson, IL)

It is apparent to this researcher, after reading the obituary for Emily, that she was residing with her son, Harvey D. Mann, at his farm. She was in his care.

Note: The first paragraph of Emily's obituary refers to her as Mrs. Emily J.Baker. Any mention of her thereafter, she is referred to as Mrs. Mann. Her marriage to John W. Mann is in the obituary, but not that of her surviving husband, Joseph S. Baker. There is no mention of Joseph in Emily's obituary. Emily was in frail health at the time of her death. Harvey D. Mann lit a fire in the stove to provide heat for her. He instructed his mother to stay away from the stove so she would not get hurt. While he was outside butchering, his mother ran outside with her clothes on fire. Harvey wrapped his coat around her, and put out the flames. To the family's dismay, Emily died from her injuries. As noted previously, Emily's brother, William Thomas Reynolds, died the next day at age 79.

Note: The Church of the Latter Day Saints shows Emily being born in Louisville, Jefferson Co. KY.

Note: In studying this history of William Thomas and Emily Jane, it is this researcher's firm belief that Emily was born in Louisville, KY.

More About Emily Jane Reynolds:
It would appear to me that William would know where Emily was born. It also appears that Harvey had more knowledge of Emily than her other children. She did not know how to read or write. Many states did not require birth or death certificates until late 1890s and early 1900s. Many doctors kept record books, but they are rare. Many states suffered the loss of records from courthouse fires.

NOTE: Most of the 1890 US Federal Census was lost due to a fire. Sometimes, one has to rely on other documents and family knowledge of events in hopes of being as accurate as we can.
One must remember that family stories change throughout the years.
Family Bibles are the best source of information as events are recorded as they happen.

WILLIAM LAMPTON (4).

Our information concerning William Lampton (4), the first son of William Lampton (3) and Martha Schooler is rather meager. In Clayton Keith's pamphlet, Sketch of The Lampton Family in America 1740-1914 we are given his birth date as 1764 in Virginia and his death as occurring onNovember 2, 1803. This was taken from Wharton Schooler Lampton's Family Bible. On page 9 of the "Sketch" - - "William Lampton came to Kentucky, where he died November 2, 1803. One of his sons William Henry Lampton,has been mentioned in our correspondence. He is supposed to have gone to Mississippi and become the ancestor of A.F. Lampton of China Grove."

We believe that Keith, with the above statement, was caught in the tangle mentioned earlier, of trying to untangle the various William Lamptons and the generation to which they were born. The only William Lampton who also bore the middle name of Henry which we have found in our research was William Henry Lampton (No. 10 in our numbering system), son of James Lampton (1) and Susannah Ryan, who was born May 1, 1813 in Clark County, Kentucky.

As mentioned in the discussion of his parents, a deed dated December 25, 1771 when William Lampton (3) & Martha Schooler lease a farm in Spotsylvania County, Virginia, mentions their son William as well. At this time he would have been about seven years old.

Records in Kentucky show that William Lampton (4) married Clara (Clary) Terrell October 7, 1792 in Madison County, Kentucky. Bondsman, Matthew Brown.

1810 Census Records in Kentucky show CLARY LAMPTON in Garrard County, Kentucky as head of household consisting of:

2 males under 10
3 males 10 - 16
1 female 26 - 45
2 slaves.

This would be compatible with William's death in 1803. It is from this Census record that we have extrapolated the approximate birth dates of the five children.

Keith in the "Sketch", also gives on page 56, a letter from William W. Lampton of New Orleans, Louisiana who says his grandfather was William Edward Lampton of Virginia, who died of cholera in 1832, and who had three children. He names only one of the three as William, born in 1822 and deceased in 1865 at his home near Paducah, Kentucky and who also had five children, William Wallace, born 1855 in New Orleans, Frank, unmarried, J. Simson, deceased, John, who married Miss Brinkman, and Robert Lee who married Miss Black.

We do not know where this family fits into the Lampton lineage but the above account goes on to say that William Lampton of Paducah, Kentucky was first cousin to Pendleton, Amphion and Monroe Lampton of Louisville.

The possibility is that this William Edward Lampton of Paducah, Kentucky was one of the five sons of William Lampton (4) and Clara Terrell.

We have the Winchester, Clark County, Kentucky Marriage resords, page 21

William Wagner & Sally Lampton were married March 7, 1796 Bondsman, Isaac Trowbridge. Teste, D, Bullock.

This marriage was performed just 16 days before the marriage of Nancy Lampton to William McKinsey which is recorded on March 23, 1796, with William Lampton as Bondsman, Attest by Samuel Lampton and consent of Martha, mother of Nancy.

We also have the record that in Lincoln County, Kentucky, on June 12, 1799, Sallie Lampton married Jonathan Trowbridge.

Clayton Keith, in his Sketch of The Lampton Family in America gives the following short account of a SUSAN lampton marrying JAMES Trowbridge. We assume this to be the marriage named above. The change of names was perhaps due to the lack of memory of Keiths informant.

SUSAN TROWBRIDGE.

Susan Trowbridge, sixth child of William Lampton, the pioneer, was born in 1775, in Virginia, and married James Trowbridge near Winchester, Kentucky. Her descendants are found chiefly in the State of Indiana. One of her sons, James Trowbridge, lived in Winchester, Clark Co.,Ky. in 1860 to 1875. He was a furniture merchant, in comfortable circumstances, owning his home and store. He and his wife were members of the Church of Christ, and he an officer in it. They had no children.

We have not followed this family and have no further information on Sallie Lampton.

ELIJAH CREED AND SOME OF HIS DESCENDANTS / by Ocie Creed

I am a descendant of Elijah Creed Sr. I do not know who his parents were or where and when he was born. He was probably born ca 1750. He married Mary Rucker, daughter of Peter and Elizabeth (Terrill) Rucker. I do not have their marriage date or where they were married. (The Rucker and Terrill family lines are well documented.) Elijah and Mary's residences were Orange Co VA (1781), Surry Co NC (1782), Fayette Co KY (1788), Shelby Co KY (1800), and Woodford Co KY (1810). I believe they both died in KY. Mary Rucker Creed possibly died before 1810. Their known children:

1. Augustin Creed. Born 5 Oct 1778, possibly NC. Died 4 Oct 1855, Grayson, Clinton Co MO. Married 21 Oct 1805 in Bedford Co VA to Rosamond Cowherd (daughter of Reuben Cowherd) who was born ca 1781 in Bedford Co VA and died ca 1842-1850 in MO.

2. Elijah Creed Jr. Born 21 Aug 1779. Died Aug-Sep1829 Rails (Monroe) Co MO. Married first 25 Feb 1802 to Mary Taylor (daughter of William Taylor). Married second 12 Aug 1806 to Elizabeth Beasley (daughter of Benjamin Beasley).

3. Margaret Creed. Born Sep 1785. Died 6 Aug 1873 Highland Co OH. Married 12 Oct 1810 in Woodford Co KY to Matthew Creed Jr, son of Matthew Creed SR of Monroe Co VA/Highland Co OH. Resident Highland Co OH.

4. Nancy Creed. Born ca 1791 KY. Died 4 Jun 1866 in Highland Co OH. Married 17 Sep 1817 in Versailles, Woodford Co OH to David Carlisle Creed, son of Matthew Creed SR of Monroe Co VA/Highland Co OH. Resident of Highland Co OH.

According to Lou Randall, the Elizabeth Creed who married John W Lynch on 4 Feb 1822 in Henry Co KY could possibly be a daughter of Elijah Creed Sr. It is possible. I wonder who was the bondsman for her at the time of marriage.

It is suggested that Elijah Creed Jr and . . .Augustin Creed, along with their own family, moved to MO on separate occasions. I have record that Elijah Jr sold land in Henry Co KY to Isham Smith on 22 Aug 1823, and Augustin sold land in Shelby Co KY on 9 Mar 1829. This seems to place the years each came to MO.

I assume that Augustin probably made some other business trips back to KY and probably to OH to visit the Creed kinfolk and others. The 6 June 1836 sale of land to Wm Cowherd would support this assumption.

The History of Monroe County published by St. Louis Historical Company, 1884, page 95, contains information that Samuel (Lemuel) Creed, Elijah Creed, and Augustin Creed were pioneer settlers of Monroe Co MO. "Chicken Pie" and "Buffalo Gal" were favorite songs in that community.

From Illustrated Historical Atlas of Monroe County, Missouri, 1876, we find this partial list of pioneers: Robert Hanna, Robert Donaldson, James Herndon, Edward Goodnight, Pharity Dye, Ramey Dye, Dr. Sylvester Hagan, Robert Gwyn, Wm Jett, Joseph Hagan, George Day, Elijah Creed, Samuel (Lemuel) Creed, Augustin Creed, Lawrence Boggs, Dr. John Bybee, and Enoch Fruit.

Some 20 years ago or so, out of curiosity, I went to Hagan Clothing Store in Mexico MO and asked Mr. Lambert Hagan if he was by any chance related to one of the above-mentioned Hagan pioneers. He smiled and said Joseph Hagan was his ancestor, and Dr. Sylvester was Joseph's brother. He said those brothers were Baptists and came to Missouri by boat, getting off at Hannibal MO. They came from Kentucky. Joseph settled in Ralls (Monroe) County and Dr. Sylvester Hagan went on to Boone Co MO, settling in Columbia MO. Mr. Lambert Hagan said that his family presently are Catholics. He is now deceased, and the business passed on to his son, Lowel Hagan.

DESCENDANTS OF ELIJAH CREED JR

Elijah Creed Jr was a son of Elijah Creed Sr and Mary Rucker Creed. He was born 21 Aug 1779, according to his family Bible. He married first Mary Taylor (daughter of William Taylor) on 25 Feb 1802 in Woodford Co KY.

Elijah Jr died Aug-Sep 1829 in Ralls-Monroe Co MO.

Two children were born to this marriage:

Louisa

1. Lucinda (Lucindy) Ann Creed. Born 12 Mar 1803 in KY. She probably died in Clinton Co MO. Lucinda married Archibald D Reed on 5 Mar 1835 in Monroe Co MO. There seems to have been a divorce or separation between Lucinda and Archibald Reed after 1845.

The Clinton Co MO census for 1850 shows she was living with Augustin Creed, her uncle. Lucinda's children are listed, too. From census records, the following children of Lucinda and Archibald have been Identified:

Mary Creel. Born in 1797 KY. Died 4 Jan 1868 in Highland Co OH. Married 4 Sep 1817 in Versailles, Woodford Co OH to David Carlisle Creel, son of Matthew Creel SR of Monroe Co, VA/Highland Co OH, Resident of Highland Co OH.

According to Lucy Randall, the Elizabeth Creel who married John W Lynch on 4 Feb 1822 in Henry Co KY could possibly be a daughter of Elijah Creel Sr. It is possible. I wonder who was the bondsman for her at the time of marriage.

It is suggested that Elijah Creel Jr and Augustine Creel, along with their own family, moved to MO on separate occasions. I have record that Elijah Jr sold land in Henry Co KY to Isham Smith on 22 Aug 1828 and Augustine sold land in Shelby Co KY on 9 Mar 1829. This seems to place the years each came to MO.

It seems that Augustin probably made some other business trips back to KY and probably to OH to visit the Creel kinfolk, and others. The 6 June 1838 sale of land to Wm Crockett would support this assumption.

The History of Monroe County published by St. Louis Household Company, 1884, page 95, contains information that Samuel (Lemuel) Creel, Elijah Creel, and Augustine Creel were pioneer settlers of Monroe Co MO. "Chicken Pie" and "Buffalo Gal" were favorite songs in that community.

In the Illustrated Historical Atlas of Monroe County, Missouri, 1876, we find this partial list of pioneers: Zachary Hodge, Robert Donaldson, James Herndon, Edward Greenleigh, Hardy Dye, Ramsey Dye, Dr. Sylvester Hagan, Robert Caldwell, Wm Jett, Joseph Hagan, Thomas Fox, Elijah Creel, Samuel (Lemuel) Creel, Augustin Creel, Lawrence Bucey, Dr. John Bybee, and Enoch Pruitt.

Some 20 years ago or so, out of curiosity, I went to Hagan Clothing Store in Mexico MO and asked Mr. Lambert Hagan if he was by any chance related to one of the above-mentioned Hagan pioneers. He smiled and said Joseph Hagan was his ancestor, and Dr. Sylvester was Joseph's brother. He said those brothers were Catholic and came to Missouri by boat, getting off at Hannibal, MO. They came from Kentucky. Joseph settled in Ralls (Monroe) County and Dr. Sylvester Hagan went on to Boone Co MO settling in Columbia MO. Mr. Lambert Hagan said that his family generally are Catholics. He is now deceased, and the business passed on to his son, Lowell Hagan.

DESCENDANTS OF ELIJAH CREEL JR.

Elijah Creel Jr was a son of Elijah Creel Sr and Mary Ashley Creel. He was born 21 Aug 1795, according to his family Bible. He married first Mary Taylor (daughter of William Taylor) on 23 Feb 1822 in Woodford Co KY.

Elijah Jr died August 1829 in Ralls-Monroe Co MO.

Two children were born to this marriage:

1. Lucinda (Lurinda) Ann Creel. Born 12 Mar 1825 in KY. She probably died in Clinton Co MO. Lucinda married Archibald D Reed on 5 Mar 1843 in Monroe Co MO. There seems to have been a divorce or separation between Lucinda and Archibald Reed after 1845.

The Clinton Co MO census for 1850 shows she was living with Augustine Creel, her uncle. Lucinda's children are listed, too. From census records, the following children of Lucinda and Archibald have been identified:

a. Virginia A Reed born ca 1839.

b. Mary A Reed born ca 1840 Monroe Co.

c. Dunkin S Reed born ca 1845.

2. Lemuel Creed. Born 5 Dec 1804. Unmarried. He died intestate in 1834 in Monroe Co MO. Augustin Creed was the administrator of his estate. Final settlement was May 1841.

Lemuel Creed's name has been a source of confusion. The early handwriting looks like Samuel, but a closer look shows it to be Lemuel. As his probate was admitted, the first entry said Samuel, after the second one and all others, it was spelled Lemuel. I imagine that was a correction made by Augustine Creed or other family members at the time of probate, or afterwards.

Mary Taylor Creed probably died in Dec 1804 or the year of 1805. Elijah Creed Jr married second on 12 Aug 1806 to Elizabeth Beasley (daughter of Benjamin Beasley).

There is an indication that her mother's family name may have been Bowdry as the bondsman was Joshua Bowdry. He may have been her uncle.

Children of Elijah Jr and Elizabeth:

1. George Washington Creed. Born 3 Oct 1808-1810 in Ky. (The year is difficult to read from the Bible record.) He married Eliza Miller on 6 Noy 1834 in Callaway Co MO by William Duncan. George W Creed's date of death is unknown.
Eliza died 25 Jul 1871 and is buried at the Methodist Church cemetery in Mokane, Callaway Co MO. Their known children:

a. Rebecca E Creed. Born ca 1839. Married John E Blount on 23 Apr 1856 in Callaway Co MO by Oliver McEwan, Minister of the Gospel. John was one of the eight children of Capt Samuel Blount according to the History of Callaway Co MO (1884).

b. Elijah Creed. Born ca 1844. Married Rachel Miller (born ca 1846) on 28 Nov 1870 in Callaway Co MO by Samuel Woody, Minister of the Gospel. Elijah is listed on the 1880 Wise Co TX census.

Volume 2, pg 2, Woodford Go KY Courthouse at Versailles KY:
Know all men by these presents that we Elijah Creed and William Taylor ... are held and firmly bound unto James Garrard Governor of Chief magistrate of the Commonwealth of Kentucky In the Just and full Sum of fifty pounds current money of the said State, to whom payment will and truly to be made unto the Governor and his succesors for the use of the Commonwealth. We bind our selves our heirs Excrts and Administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents, Seated with our seals this 25th day of February 1802.
The condition of the above obligation Is such that whereas there is a marriage intended to be held and solemnized between the above bound Elijah Creed and Mary Taylor of Woodford County wherefore If there be no lawfull Impediment to the said marriage, then the above obligation to be vold else to remain in full force of virtue.

CAPTAIN EWING CREED

by Nyla Creed DePauk

Mr. Woodrow Boyett shared a letter that he had received from Professor Howard Creed of Birmingham Southern College. This seems to relate to the same Captain Ewing Creed mentioned on page 5 of this issue. Professor Creed wrote Mr. Boyette on 25 Jun 1982:

"I've been told that my great grandfather. James Madison Creed, who was born in KY, had a blacksmith shop on the banks of the MS River in Callaway Co, MO. He and his wife, Molvina Hill of VA, were friends of a riverboat captain, Captain Joshua Ewing; they named my grandfather for him: Captain Ewing Creed. My grandfather signed his name "C. E. Creed," but he was called "Cap" all of his life, which was spent for the most part on a farm in Randolph County; so did I, in Moberly MO midway between St. Louis and Kansas City."

2. James Madison Creed. Born 27 Jan 1812 in KY. Died 16 Feb 1872 in Monroe Co MO. Married first: Martha Jane Wilson on 26 Feb 1839 In Callaway Co MO. Martha Jane died in the Spring of 1851.

James M Creed was a blacksmith and kept a blacksmith ledger. I was fortunate to examine the book. It was a thrill to read a book so old and in such excellent shape, written in brown ink of those days.

Its first entry, dated 1838, was for three days' work for J Griffin for $3.00.

Another entry was dated 1847 for two big wheel whards for Augustin Creed. The amount was $0.25. That probably was the year Augustin Creed moved to Clinton Co MO. Augustin was James Madison Creed's uncle.

k. Edgar Creed. Born 19 Oct 1872. Died Oct 1872.

The twins were born after their father's death, same year.

3. Thomas Jefferson Creed. Born 24 Jun 1814 in KY. This child was mentally retarded. Daniel McSwain was named his guardian on 5 May 1335 in Monroe Co MO until he became age 21. After that his oldest brother George W Creed was his guardian in Monroe Co and Callaway Co. George W remained his guardian until after the Civil War. Thomas J probably died ca 1870 or prior. I cannot find any record for him after the sixth settlement (Book H, pg 263) in Callaway Co MO Probate on 15 Feb 1868.

4. Jenetta Creed. Born 29 Feb 1817. Died in Monroe Co MO. She married Dr. John S Bybee on 26 Apr 1837 in Monroe Co MO. Joseph Mallory was J.P. It was difficult tracing the Bybee family. Jenetta Creed was his fifth wife. It was several years before I got the right family and was able to get what little information I have for this family. There was supposed to be nine children, but six are known as listed below:

a. George Washington Bybee. Born 19 May 1838 in Monroe Co MO. Married Mary Jane Powell on 25 Jan 1864 in Monroe Co MO.

b. Logan Bybee. Born 10 Apr 1849 in Monroe Co MO. Died 1 Apr 1936 in Audrain Co MO. Married Ellen Davis on 20 Mar 1373 in Audrain Co.

c. John Bybee.

d. Nancy Bybee. Married a Goodnight.

e. Cyrene Bybee. Married a Hill.

f. Louisiana Bybee. Married Leon Blum.

5. Wilkerson L Creed. Born 23 Oct 1819. Died 7 Sep 1907. He is buried at Berea Baptist Church Cemetery in Molino, Monroe Co MO. He married n 22 Nov 1845 Clarissa Marie Finks who was born ca 1825 (daughter of John Finks). William Dollard, J.P., Monroe Co MO performed the marriage. I have located six of their children. Although no birth or death dates are available, I have most marriage records. Their children:

a. John Simeon Creed. Married Bettie J. Bozarth.

b. Sarah E Creed. Married Richard Robinson on 21 Nov 1872 in Audrain Co MO.

c. James Washington Creed 3/. Married Rebecca Jane Allison on 12 Sep 1889 in Audrain Co.

a. John Camplin. Married Bell Holliway.

b. Bole Camplin.

c. Lula Camplin.

d. Lizzie Camplin. Married Jim Foree.

e. Addie Camplin. Married Granville Morehead.

7. Sinthey Creed. Born 10 Nov 1825 in KY. She must have died young as she is not listed in the Monroe Co MO probate records of Elijah Creed Jr.

8. Louisa Ann Creed. Born 15 Aug 1830 in Monroe Co Mo. Died I Mar 1914 in Mexico, Audrain Co MO. Married Logan H Mundy on 9 Oct 1845 in Monroe Co MO by Enoch Fruit, Preacher of the Gospel. According to Elijah's family Bible, seven children were born to this marriage. Louisa Ann Creed was not listed in his Bible since she was born after his death. However, she is listed as one of the children in his estate papers. My grandfather said she was his father's aunt. Although her grave marker gives the 1330 date of birth, this date seems to be in error and probably should be 15 Aug 1829. Children of Louisa Ann and Logan Mundy are:

a. Mildred Mundy.

b. John E Mundy. Married Jennie Price.

c. Horace Mundy. Born 22 Dec 1859 in Monroe Co Mo.

d. James C Mundy born 28 Mar 1868 in Monroe Co MO. Died 8 Jan 1957. His wife's first name was Ora J.

1. Absalom POLLARD Sr. was born on 1 Jan 1760 in New Kent, New Kent Co, VA. He died on 29 Aug 1835 in Lancaster, Garrard Co, KY. BIRTH: Absalom is the way his name is spelled on his birth record at St Peters parish in New Kent County, VA, the congressional record of the 31st congress, and the pension affidavit of Lewis V Phillips (doc #55). It is spelled Absolem, on page 475 of the official will book of Garrard County, KY.

MILITARY: He served as a Private and Corporal in Captain Jacob Valentines Company of the Second Regiment of the Virginia Line during the Revolutionary War from 1776 until the close of the revolution in 1783 when he was discharged due to poor health. He joined in Culpeper County, VA and served during the battles of Monmouth, Stony Point, and during the siege of Yorktown under General George Washington. (The war was fought from 1775 until the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown on Oct 19, 1781, the treaty was signed on Sep 3, 1783). He applied for and received warrant #3297 for 200 acres on 11 May 1784 at Richmond, Virginia for 3 years service as a Corporal in the Virginia Line, as listed in the Revolutionary War Bounty Land Grants Book, Page 422.

MARRIAGE: From deposition of his wife, Leanna, for a Widow's Pension from the Revolution: A slip cut from the Family Bible, listed the date, place and Mr. Holmes as the minister who performed the ceremony.

CENSUS/TAX LISTS: Amherst Co, VA tax list in 1783. Garrard Co, KY tax list in 1799 (for the lower district, with 1 white male over 21 and 4 horses). "The Second Census of Kentucky in 1800 (compiled from tax lists). Garrard Co, KY Census in 1820 (4 males age 16-26, 1 male over 45, 2 females 16-26, 1 female 26-45. Garrard Co, KY Census in 1830 (1 male age 20 - 30, 1 male age 70 - 80, 1 female age 60 - 70).

OTHER: We believe he moved to Amherst County, VA about the time he married Leaner Banks in 1782, where their first four children, Abner, Granville, Staunton, and John were born. We believe they moved to Lincoln County between 1787 & 1789, (a Virginia County until 1792 when Kentucky became a State). Later, this section of Lincoln County where today's City of Lancaster is situated, became Garrard County, Kentucky in 1796, where they had their next eight children, Sarah, Leaner, Malinda, Pamelia, Nancy, Absalom Jr.., Reuben, and James.

The first record of his presence in Kentucky was in the Early Kentucky Householders and Landholders book 1787-1811 showing the following entry: Pollard, Absalom 07 Aug 1789, book-pg 2.11 TM 1. He was next listed in 1791, and 1792, then again from 1794 through 1796 with 45 acres on the Sugar Creek watershed (His brother James also appears in the same book). He was serving as a Captain in the 1st Division, 2nd Brigade, 6th Regiment of the Kentucky Cornstalk Militia on Aug 9, 1792. He also appears on the tax list of Lincoln County on 27 April 1794 in Book 3, Page 17, as having 45 acres on the Sugar Creek watershed.

He applied for and received a pension #W8527 on 20 March 1830, under the act of May 15, 1828.

It was believed that he was buried in the Pollard Family Cemetery at latitude 37, 39' 35" on what was believed to have been the original Sugar Creek homestead, located on U.S. Route 27, opposite, and somewhat south of the mouth of Boones Creek Road near Lancaster, Garrard Co., KY. The tombstones of six family members including Granville, his wife Elizabeth, Isaiah, Isabella, Elizabeth H, and Telephus, (all buried between 1839 and 1862) were seen by Alice Montgomery and later by Bill and Reba Pollard in 1992, but were never able to find the tombstones of Absalom or Leanner. A pension affidavit submitted by Lewis V. Philips in January 1855 stated the following: "They are both buried at the old homestead in Garrard County, KY and I have frequently seen their graves. On the tombstone of the said Absalom Pollard is inscribed Absalom Pollard died August 30th 1835 aged 80 years" (Document #55 U.S. Archives). This cemetery is not protected, and has become part of a cow pasture on the Les Huffman farm, it has deteriorated to the point that within a few years all traces of its existence will have disappeared. After further investigation in the area, we now believe that Absalom and Leaner were buried on what was then [illegible] Smith 721

After further investigation in the area, we now believe that Abraham and Leaner were buried on what was then known as the "Old Place" mentioned in Absalom's will, which could not have been on the property where the "Pollard" cemetery is located, as this property would have been acquired by Granville and Ann Thompson-Pollard from her parents. The "Old Place" bordered on Sugar Creek and Steens Branch which would have been located further to the North of this location.

DAR Lineage Book Vol 69, Pg 305 - Patriots Index Vol 1, Pg 539 - Calendar of Virginia State Papers: Letter to Gov Jefferson, dated 1781 from Lt. Absalom Pollard (referred to in the VA Historical Index).

Absalom was listed as bondsman for John Banks marriage to Dolly McLand, 19 Aug 1806; and William Banks marriage to Elizabeth Brown, 5 Dec 1801.

WILL: I, Absalom Pollard of Garrard County, influenced by a sense of duty to myself and family, having attained 70 years of age and upwards, and being at this time somewhat indisposed by disease, do make, ordain and publish this writing as my last will and testament. In the first place it is my desire that all my just debts (if any) be paid by my executors. And that my body be interred in a decent and Christian like manner.

Secondly, I devise to my affectionate wife Leaner Pollard, who has been my faithful partner during a long life, the tract of land on which I now live during her natural life. And at her death I devise the same to my son James Pollard and his heirs forever. I also devise to my wife, during her life the following slaves (to wit) Judy, Peter, Fielding and Andrew, and at her death I desire that my executors may sell said slaves and divide the proceeds as hereafter directed. Also I devise to my said wife all the money which I have on hand and so much of my household and kitchen furniture as she may desire to keep and at her death I desire that my son James shall have my desk, clock and folding, and the remainder of said property I desire my executors to sell after the death of my said wife. It is further my desire that my son James as soon as convenient after my death, move upon the farm now occupied by me and live with his mother and manage and cultivate the farm for her hoping that they can do so in harmony and peace.

Thirdly, in order to make provision for my daughter Pamelia Cornelius and her children, I desire to my son James for her benefit, that tract of land adjoining the farm on which I live, called the (old place) and bounded as follows, to wit, beginning at the mouth of Steens Branch, thence up the same to Steens line, thence a north course with his line to the mouth of a lane, near where John Cornelius formerly lived, thence a west course down a small branch to Sugar Creek, thence up the same to the beginning, which tract of land I desire may be held by said James Pollard as trustee for my daughter Pamelia during her life and at her death I devise the same to the children of said Pamelia and their heirs forever.

Fifthly it is my desire that my executors hereafter to be named, after my death, sell all the balance of my estate upon such credit as they may deem expedient and divide the proceeds thereof equally, to wit, Reuben Pollard, Staunton Pollard, John Pollard, John Hill and wife, Samuel Naylor and wife, Terrill Herring and wife, John Naylor and wife, Absalom Pollard, Granville Pollard and the children of Abner Pollard, deceased who are to be entitled to the same share to which their father would have been entitled had he been living.

Sixthly, I nominate and appoint my son John Pollard, My son-in-law John Hill and my friend Robert Burnsides, my executors, hoping that they will carry my will into effect by making sale of such of my estate as is not specifically devised as soon as practicable after my death and will also sell such of my estate as may be devised during the life of my wife and as soon thereafter as may be convenient. And the proceeds divided as I have herein requested. In addition to the property devised to my wife during life, I give to her 2 horses 8 head of cattle, 2 ploughs and gear.

In testimony whereof I have hereunder set my hand this 24th day of February 1833.

OAK GREEN FARM (THE HALL; MORTON HALL) 18th c.; ca. 1856

[illegible] 614.0

Mr.& Mrs. Richard Harris

The nucleus of the Hall tract was 283 acres acquired by Jeremiah Morton I from William Connico in 1756. Jeremiah Morton died a year later, a casualty of the French and Indian War (local tradition states that he was killed on nearby Clark's Mountain while trying to arrest a deserter). Jeremiah's son, William, inherited the land and added over 3,500 acres in Orange County (and several more tracts across the Rapidan in Culpeper County) by the time of his death in 1833.

William Morton died childless, dividing his estate among his orphaned great-nephews who had made their home with him. George and Jeremiah Morton were given the lands in Culpeper. Jackson Morton inherited the Orange County lands, including the homeplace (his brother William was to have received half of the home plantation, but died young and his share passed to Jackson). In 1853, Jackson Morton sold the Hall plantation to his brother, Jeremiah.

Jeremiah Morton was a man of many talents. Besides owning and maintaining several large and successful plantations in Orange and Culpeper counties, he was an amateur architect and served as a United States Congressman. He was also a virulent seccessionist. He sold The Hall in 1862 to Franklin Stearns of Richmond, investing the money in Confederate bonds. Wiped out by the Confederate defeat, he died at nearby Lessland, home of his daughter and son-in-law, Mildred and Joseph J. Halsey. The Hall remained in the Stearns family until 1918. It passed through several owners before its purchase by the Harrises in 1959.

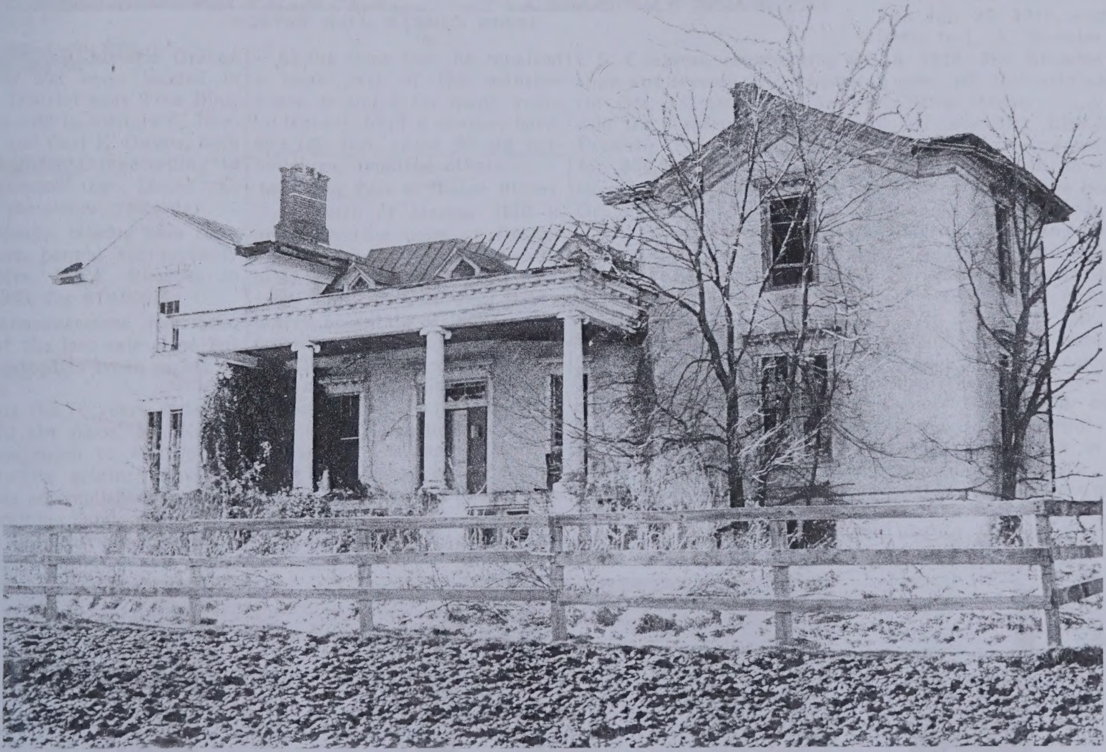
The nucleus of the house, the story-and-a-half frame section which now forms the center of the building, was built by Jeremiah Morton I or William Morton. First called The Meadows, it appears on an insurance policy of 1805, surrounded by a modest complex of outbuildings. Later rechristened The Hall, it became popularly called "Morton Hall." The property is now known as Oak Green Farm.

In the mid-1850's, Jeremiah Morton applied his skill as an architect to The Hall. His renovation, in a collection of popular styles, included the addition of the two-story Italianate wings, columned Ionic portico, ornate Classical trim on the doors and windows, and a rear service wing to the house. The original 18th-century section was gutted and turned into a single large reception hall. The much-enlarged house served as Confederate Gen. Ewell's headquarters when the Army of Northern Virginia was in winter quarters in Orange County in 1863-64.

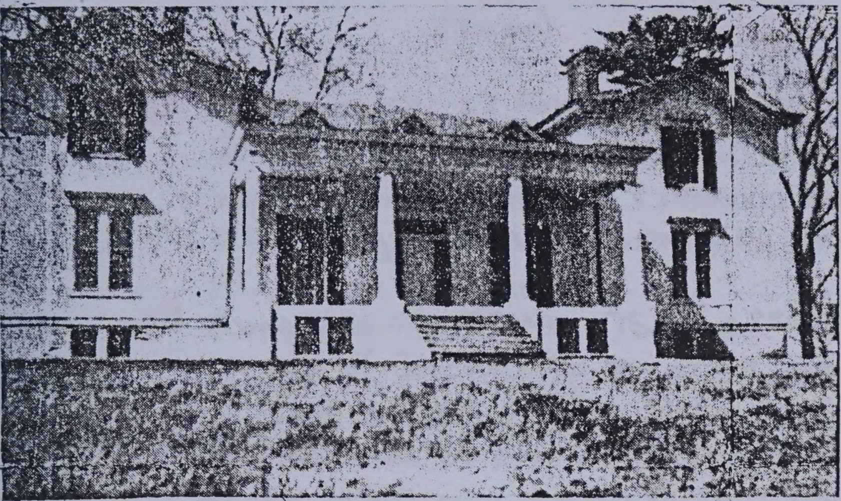
The stucco which currently covers the building was added in the mid-20th century. Near the house is an obelisk which marks the grave of William Morton (1748-1833).

Writing near the end of his life, Jeremiah Morton sketched a poignant portrait of the effects of the Civil War--at once obituary for himself and for the life and the South he had known:

I was surrounded by every comfort the world could afford--a delightfull home and happy family of whites and blacks, an income of $30,000 annually with a prospect of yearly increase--the scourge of war has swept all from me, and at the age of 68, I stand a blasted stump in the wilderness of life.



Morton Hall Estate, 558 Acres In Gordon District, Reported Sold To North Carolina Buyers



MORTON HALL MANSION HOUSE

Morton Hall, historic Orange tate of 558 acres located in ordon District near True Blue, been sold to Richard C. Har- , and Carl E. Owens, both aleigh, N.C., according to nouncement by Lester C. napp, the owner, yesterday.

Mr. Knapp, coming here from chmond, bought the property om Mrs. L. A. Rhoades in ne, 1943, for $18,000.

No announcement has been ade of the last sale price but understood to be in excess of 0,000.

During the 16 years, since he s held the place, Mr. Knapp s done much to restore the rm to its original fertility. his was accomplished by clear- g, draining and cultivation. ising beef cattle has been his ecialty.

At the same time he repaired a large part of the mansion house, occupied for many years by tenants, built a modern barn, 60 x 120 feet, razed 20 old outbuildings, repaired others.

Interesting Page of Orange History

A sketch of Morton Hall is an interesting page of Orange history although it was given up by the Morton family nearly 100 years ago. In those days it embraced an estate of 2,527 acres, according to a deed recorded in the Clerk's Office of Orange. It was a complete unit to itself, self-sustaining, and included more than 20 quarters for slaves, an overseer's house, as well as other buildings necessary for operation of a well organized plantation.

The owner was Jeremiah Morton, who was a member of the U.S. Congress, representing Orange and several other counties. On Oct. 18, 1862, Mr. Morton sold the property as a whole to Franklin Stearns of Richmond for $50,000 consideration mentioned in the deed recorded at Orange on the above date.

The War Between the States was on then. Cash invovled was probably Confederate money. The story is that it was invested in Confederate bonds supporting the southern cause.

There is no available record of just when the mansion house was built but tradition establishes the date as 1735, one year after Orange County was organized. The house, a large structure, with frame and mortar walls, gives evidence of much age. A feature is the very large front hall, also the dining room eral times, but most of the wo was done long ago, except f that recently by Mr. and Mr Knapp.

A large monument in the ya at the side of the house repr sents what is left of the famil graveyard. It is dedicated the memory of William Morton died Sept. 4, 1833, in the 85t year of his age. He is describ as father to the fatherless an friend of the poor.

On August 15, 1877, M Stearns and his wife, Carolin V., by deed of gift transferre ownership of 5,871 acres t their son, E. Willie Stearns. I included, the deed relates, th 2,527 acres bought from Jeremiah Morton, referred to a "the Hall Place." Reference made to a survey by William C Moore in 1843.

It is apparent that Frankl Stearns had, over time, acquire other large acreages in that immediate section, all adjoining.

In the years that followed M Stearns sold the Hall place t Charles S. Waugh, jr., and h on July 29, 1918, sold the pro erty to L. A. Rhoades. On Sep 6, 1918, Mr. Rhoades sold nin acres off the original tract t Clifton Hume.

It was Mr. Rhoades' wido who sold the property to M. Knapp in 1943 so that in a history there have been but fiv owners since the estate was established, counting Mr. Knapp.

In planning to leave Orang Mr. Knapp reports that possession to the new owners will b given June 1. Mr. and Mr Knapp will be here until th school term is completed a then they will move to Flori where they will make the home. Since being here the have been active in civic a community affairs and wer among the founders of the Ha field Grange of which Mr. Knap is Past Master.

"During the Spring of 1700 three vessels sailed from Gravesend, Eng bringing seven hundred French Huguenots to Virginia. They settled in ManakinTowne, Virginia. With them were three brothers, named de Lacy. After becoming Americanized they spelled the name Lacy.
The first thing these Huguenots did after getting settled in ManakinTowne was to erect an Episcopal Church. In an old ManakinTowne Register are the names of William Lacy, Thomas Lacy, ✓and Nathaniel Lacy, evidently sons of the Huguenots."

The credit for the following information goes to the FHC in Magnolia, AR. The wonderful volunteers and other researchers helped me find this missing link. Many thanks to other Christian researchers, especially Liz Newland of Australia and Agnes Branch Pearlman, former editor of the "Christian Family Chronicles", who have added to the original information.

Dirct line is indicated with bold lettering.
"+" indicates that there is more information on the family on this page.

NOTE: According to Ms. Pearlman, Thomas Christian is the presumed immigrant to VA and researchers are working hard to discover his ancestry. The information on William Christian from the Isle of Man, his two wives and their children has been removed since it has been proven that they are not "our" Thomas's ancestors. More research is needed and any source material would be much appreciated!

Thank you for your quick follow up to my query. But there seems to be confusion about the descendants of William Christian, the Manx patriot called "Iliam Dhone." I have seen the list that you posted but there is another taken from the Manx Note Book (can be found at http://genforum.genealogy.com/va/messages/10071.html).

It goes like this:

1. William CHRISTIAN ("Iliam Dhone") was born April 1608 and died January 2, 1662/63 and married Elizabeth.

Their children were
2. i. Ewan (died in infancy)
ii. George b. 1635 d. 1694 and buried at Malew, IOM (He had one son, William, who had one daughter, Elizabeth, who died without issue)
iii. Ewan b. 1637 at Ronaldsway, IOM d. 1671 buried at Malew, IOM
iv. John (no information)
v. William (no information)
vi. Mary b. 1641 married Charles Stanley
vii. Patricius b. 1644 married Ann Moore viii. Thomas b. 1646 d. 1700 married Mary Birch (moved on to Liverpool)
ix. Charles b. 1649 d. 1699 without issue

My Thomas CHRISTIAN doesn't seem to quite fit because there are land records in Virginia about 1647 mentioning his name and if he came over at, let's say, 20 years of age, he would have been born around 1627. It would be fantastic if I were descended from Iliam Dhone but it doesn't seem to fit. Thank you for the help. It's all appreciated.

ILLIAM CHRISTIAN

(BORN APRIL 168, DIED
JANY. 1662-3), RECEIVER-
GENERAL, WAS THE ,
3RD SON OF DEEMSTER
EWAN CHRISTIAN, of Milntown, who presented him with the property of Ronaldsway, of which, in 1643, he accepted a lease[1] for three lives, from James, Earl of Derby, on condition of surrendering the ancient "tenure of the straw." By his wife, Elizabeth,[2] he had eight sons and one daughter. Ewan, the eldest died in infancy ; George, (born 1635, died 1694, buried at Malew), obtained possession of Ronaldsway, which had been confiscated on his father's death, in the autumn of 1663 ; for ,having exhibited his complaint to his Majesty in Council," it was ordered " that intire restitution be made of all the said estate."[3] Probably, owing to the expense attending this appeal, we find that, in 1677, he held only half the estate, and moreover, that "the houses on the said estate" were "decayed and dilapidated."[4] His only son, William, succeeded him, but in 17o6, he was ejected, and "John Corrin[5] entered . . . by virtue of our Honourable Lord's decree."[6] Christian appealed against this, and, in 1716, is again "entered by virtue of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales his order in Council."[7] In 1720, "having contracted very considerable debts by reason of a long and expensive law suit in recovering my estate of Ronaldsway" he was obliged to sell it.[8] He had an only daughter, Elizabeth, who died without issue.

Ewan, (born 1637, died 1671, at Ronaldsway, buried at Malew), the third son, petitioned Charles II. "that those persons, who had been the judge and jurors upon that tryall of his father . . . may be brought upp before your Mat^{ie} to give an accompt of their said proceedings." [9]

Of the next two sons, John and William, nothing is known. Mary (born 1641) married Charles Stanley, of Ballacaighen, in Rushen, and had issue. The Stanleys of Ballacaighen, were a younger branch of the Derby family.

Patricius (born 1644) married Ann Moore, of Pulrose, and had three sons and one daughter. It is not known what has become of his descendants. He lived at Ballaquayle, in Braddan, and was a member of the House of Keys in 1699. The eighth son, Charles (born 1649, died 1699 without issue), was a Major in the army.

It is only the descendants of the seventh son, Thomas (born 1646, died 1700), whom we can trace to the present day. He seems to have had charge of the family property in Lancashire[10] and to have carried on a merchant's business in Liverpool. He married Mary, daughter of the well-known Colonel Birch, who was governor of Liverpool under the Common-wealth, and had issue Hugh. Hugh (born 1679, died 1729), was captain and owner of a merchant vessel. His son Thomas (born 1716, died 1752) was a Captain in the Royal Navy. Hepworth Dixon, in " Her Majesty's Tower," mentions that he took out letters of marque and captured several Spanish galleons.

By his wife, Ann Hughes, he had issue Sir Hugh Cloberry, K.B. (born 1747, died 1798) Rear-Admiral of the White. Between 1779 and 1783 he took part in various actions in the West Indies, and in 1796 he was appointed to the chief command there. Sir Ralph Abercromby, in his despatch of the 31st May, in that year, announcing the surrender of St. Lucia, wrote "Rear-Admiral Sir Hugh Christian, and the Royal Navy, have never ceased to show the utmost alacrity in forwarding the public service. To their skill and unremitting labour the success which has attended his Majesty's arms is in a great measure due."[11] Early in 1798 he was commander-in-chief at the Cape of Good Hope, where he died suddenly in the November of the same year. " His services . . . had been arduous and useful ; and by his death, the country lost an attentive, who presented him with the property of Ronaldsway, of which, in 1643, he accepted a lease[1] for three lives, from James, Earl of Derby, on condition of surrendering the ancient "tenure of the straw." The daughters were all married, Ann, to Major General Frederick, Baron Hompesch, Mary to Count William Bylandt, and Joanna to Mr. R. Robinson. The eldest of the sons, Hood Hanway (born 1784, died 1849), went into the Navy and was made a Commander at the very early age of sixteen, "for the gallant way in which he commanded a division of boats at the siege of Genoa."[13] In 1809 he took part in the ill-fated Walcheren expedition, after which he saw no active service. In 1838 he was made Rear-Admiral. He had four sons and three daughters, of whom the only survivor is Mrs. Arthur Traherne,. of Glan-y-dur, Brecknockshire. Sir Hugh's younger son, Hugh George (born 1787, died 1861) was a very able East Indian Civilian. He left the college at Fort William "with honours never before or since surpassed."[14] ,Whilst in India he held the appointment of Collector and Magistrate of various districts in the North-West Provinces, member of the Board of Revenue, and Commissioner for the settlement of the conquered and ceded Provinces."[15] His eldest son Samuel, and two surviving sons, Major Hugh Henry Christian, J.P., Provost of Portobello, and the Rev.
